U.S. Bids For Disarm Talks

Seized Plane Has Arms For Cuban Revolt

Customs Agents Say Dominicans Attempted Bribe

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A transport plane loaded with arms reportedly destined for use in a counter-revolution in Cuba was seized at Miami International Airport Friday. Its eleven passengers were arrested.

U. S. customs agents, who surrounded the four-engine C74 as it warmed up for a flight to the Dominican Republic, said they also wanted Augusto Ferrando, Dominican consul in Miami. He was reported in the consulate here.

U. S. Atty. James L. Guilmartin said Ferrando and two other persons attempted to bribe customs officers to insure non-intervention in moving the arms.

Trap Is Set

When the customs men reported to authorities, a trap was set for the plane.

Joseph Liquori, a Miami policeman who once worked for the Dominican government, and Leonard Trento, who was identified as a Newark, N. J., businessman, also were charged with attempted bribery of a federal officer.

The nine others taken from the plane, including one woman, faced charges of conspiracy to export arms illegally. The woman, identified as Virginia Bland, was reported to be the plane's copilot.

Rifles, automatic weapons and 200,000 rounds of ammunition were taken from the plane. They were reportedly intended for delivery in the Dominican Republic to friends of Fulgencio Batista, former president of Cuba.

Given Refuge

Fidel Castro led a 25-month revolution that ended last New Year's Eve when Batista fled to Ciudad Trujillo, where he was given political refuge.

Guilmartin said Ferrando gave $1,400 to customs officers William B. Lankford and Wallace D. Shanley for their aid in getting the plane out safely. He delivered $400 to them in a meeting May 6 and $1,000 on May 19. They turned the cash over to authorities.

A man identified as Dominic Bantone was reported to be the owner of the plane.

FBI Agents Quit Probe

POPLARVILLE, Miss. (AP) — Dist. Atty. Vernon Broome said the FBI agents investigating the Mack Charles Parker lynch-kidnaping appeared to be breaking camp Friday amid reports they found no evidence of any federal law violation.

Parker, a 23-year-old Negro from nearby Lumberton, was snatched from the Pearl River County Jail here April 25 and shot to death before his body was dumped into the Pearl River on the Mississippi side of the stream, the boundary between this state and Louisiana.

Broome told newsmen he had no official word that the Justice Department is bowing out of the case, but said there are indications the agents are returning to their home offices.

There have been reports from unnamed Justice Department officials in Washington the investigation showed no federal laws were broken and the case would be turned over to Mississippi officials.

In another development Friday a New York radio station said it had received a letter naming 10 men involved in Parker's death and outlining his kidnaping.

Special Agent Ralph Bachman, heading the big FBI contingent in Poplarville, denied a story that appeared in Friday's edition of the Memphis Commercial Appeal, saying the FBI had concluded its investigation.

Plastic Bags Prove Suffocation Traps

By The Associated Press

Youngsters have a penchant for pulling the bags over their heads, innocently unaware they are courting death through entanglement that suffocates them.

More than two dozen tots have suffocated already this year. The National Safety Council says the number may rise to 100 before the year is out. A number of the victims are less than a year old.

The bags are the type used largely by dry cleaning establishments for returning garments. The material also is used for such purposes as covering pillows and crib mattresses.

The toll has spurred agitation across the country to have the bags perforated or clearly marked "dangerous."

Bills to that effect have been introduced in Congress and some state legislatures. Health officials and dry cleaning groups, including the National Institute of Dry Cleaning, have urged precautions.

But some officials hold that final responsibility rests with parents—to keep bags out of the children's reach.

In Los Angeles County, where there have been three plastic bag deaths, Dr. Roy Gilbert, county health officer, said the thinness of the bags makes them dangerous—giving them an adhesive quality.

The New Mexico public health director, Stanley J. Leland, has warned that in dry areas such as the Southwest, especially, the material develops a charge of static electricity which causes the plastic to cling and increases the danger of smothering.

Leland has urged several times this spring that parents be most careful about using the plastic material as cribsheets or otherwise letting the material get into cribs, beds or playpens.

New Mexico has had four smothering deaths, one this year.

A bill introduced in Congress this week by Rep. Henry S. Reuss (D-Wis) would ban interstate shipment of plastic bags unless they contain warnings in letters at least three inches high of the danger of suffocation to children.

The Florida Legislature is considering a bill that would ban from the state any plastic bags large enough to cover the head of a child.

A bill before the New Jersey Legislature would require that warning signs be posted in places where the bags are used or sold, and that warning slips be given to customers.

Legislation being prepared in California would require plastic bags used by cleaners to be perforated and labeled dangerous.

The Michigan Legislature turned down a bill that would force cleaners to perforate the bags.

The death toll since the end of 1958 includes: California 4; Indianapolis area 4; Minneapolis area 4; western Pennsylvania 2; Baltimore area 2; New Jersey 2; St. Louis, Mo., area 1; Winston-Salem, N.C., 1; Reno, Nev., 1; New Mexico 1.

Rising Taxes Bring Cost Of Living Upward

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rising state and local taxes helped shove living costs back up to record levels last month.

The Labor Department reported Friday that recent boosts in sales and excise taxes on such items as gasoline, tobacco, telephones and liquors are having an impact.

It said taxes already enacted and contemplated—as states and cities seek more revenue—could boost living costs to still higher peaks this summer.

The April rise was only two-tenths of one per cent but it put the government's living cost index back up to the highest-ever rate of last July and November at 123.9 per cent of the 1947-49 base.

April costs were three-tenths of one per cent higher than in April last year. But over-all living cost changes have been moderate for nearly a near now.

Despite the rise, both the spendable earnings of factory workers and the purchasing power of their pay dollars scored new highs. Because prices have remained fairly stable while earnings have increased, the average factory worker now has about 10 per cent more purchasing power than a year ago.

The record for spendable earnings—the amount received in pay envelopes after tax deductions—is an average $80.68 a week for the factory worker with three dependents and $73.14 for the single worker. The Labor Department attributed the 50-cent weekly increase over March to both higher wages and overtime hours.

Most of the 1½ million workers due for a quarterly pay adjustment based on the April living cost index failed to get any wage increase. This is due to insufficient change from the January index.

Among those whose pay remains unaffected are about a million auto workers. About 160,000 workers in a score of other industries get raises of from one-half to one cent an hour.

Food costs declined one-tenth of one per cent in April as lower prices for eggs, poultry and milk more than offset seasonablly higher prices for fresh fruits and vegetables.

Housing and clothing costs remained unchanged but prices of transportation, medical care, recreation and personal care were up.

The transportation cost rise was attributed to increased prices for used cars, gasoline, tires and auto insurance. New car prices were lower as dealers gave bigger discounts and stocks rose to a near record.

Canny Old Relief Cheat With Fortune Goes Free

NEW YORK (AP) — Harry Schweitzer, the canny old relief cheat who parlayed nickels and dimes from his welfare dole into a modest Wall Street fortune, got off scot free Friday. He's square with the world now.

"This man is the poor man's Bernard Baruch," said Schweitzer's lawyer in reference to the noted financier who piled up a much larger fortune of his own by astute dealings in the stock market.

On a $1.10 a day after rent, Schweitzer was able to go into the market and amass a portfolio of stocks worth $21,000. It took him about 10 years.

Judge Mitchell D. Schweitzer—no relation—looked the 75-year-old relief chiseler over and complained: "You caused me a lot of trouble."

Then Judge Schweitzer added: "Sentence suspended. No probation."

Schweitzer could have gotten three years for petty larceny. He had pleaded guilty last April 7.

He has repaid the Welfare Department what he accepted from them and the city isn't out a cent after all. So a welfare representative told the court the department holds no grudge against Schweitzer.

The short, slightly built Schweitzer grinned broadly and told reporters as he left the courtroom a free man: "If I had a million dollars I'd give it to the Welfare Department, which has saved my last days so they would not be so bitter."

Schweitzer came here from Poland in 1923. He went on relief in 1938 after ill health forced his retirement as a hospital orderly.

Schweitzer received $71.10 a month from the Welfare Department. His living expenses were extremely modest.

By 1951, Schweitzer had built up a $4,000 nest egg with which he plunged into the stock market. He had studied it closely—one of his standard items of expenses was a nickel a day for a morning newspaper that carried stock market news.

Last Jan. 8, in the midst of a city crackdown on relief chiselers, Schweitzer was arrested and it was disclosed that his market holdings were worth $21,000.

Wrong Diagnosis

MAIDENHEAD, England (UPI) —An autopsy on the body of Herbert S. Coleman, 65, showed Friday that he was suffering from sclerosis when he gassed himself to death.

Coleman was said to have killed himself after three doctors told him he had cancer of the liver. The autopsy showed no cancer was present.

Nurse Sits Atop Roof To Prevent Moving House

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A nurse sat on the top of her garage to prevent a house from being moved over it, while negotiations proceeded to determine what she should be paid.

The attorney for the nurse, Kay Webber, 33, a widow, said that moving the house through the air over her garage in a narrow alley was trespass. Finally Mrs. Webber agreed Thursday to payment of $225 and allowed the house to be moved over the garage and to the rear of a neighbor's property.

Brazil Marines Fire On Crowd In Ferry Riot

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) --Brazilian marines opened fire with submachine guns and pistols Friday on an angry crowd that rioted for three hours after a ferryboat strike stranded thousands of commuters.

The mob burned the ferry dock, offices and a restaurant in downtown Niteroi, a town of 200,000 across the bay from Rio. Stores were looted and a dockside warehouse destroyed.

Government sources said Marine gunfire killed one person and wounded between 30 and 50. Newspaper reports said up to 12 were killed and 64 wounded. The Niteroi hospital said it had 84 patients injured either by gunfire or the rioting.

The navy provided a launch to transport commuters across the bay to Rio, normally a 20-minute trip. Eyewitnesses said commuters surged out of control attempting to board the launch. They said the navy commander then ordered the marines to fire and bar the crowd from taking over the vessel.

President Juscelino Kubitschek ordered the government to seize the Carretera Ferry Co. on the ground it had been receiving government subsidies but not passing them on to its employes. He also ordered the disputed back wages paid.

Governors Plan Russian Visit

NEW YORK (AP)—Nine state governors are going to learn at first hand what goes on inside the Soviet Union.

Five Republican and four Democratic governors are scheduled to leave here June 23 for a three-week tour of the Soviet Union to study how regional government is handled.

They will visit Moscow, Leningrad, Kiev, Tiflis and Tashkent.

The nine governors are: Leroy Collins of Florida, Democrat, chairman of the National Governor's Conference and head of the mission; George D. Clyde, Republican, Utah; John E. Davis, Republican, North Dakota; Luther H. Hodges, Democrat, North Carolina; Robert B. Meyner, Democrat, New Jersey; Stephen L. R. McNichols, Democrat, Colorado; Robert E. Smylie, Republican, Idaho; William G. Stratton, Republican, Illinois, and Cecil H. Underwood, Republican, West Virginia.

They will explore the possibility of setting up a program to exchange visits of Soviet and American state and local government officials.

The Institute of International Education in New York and New York University invited the Executive Committee of the National Governors Conference to make the survey, a spokesman for the institute said.

Money for the tour was provided by the Rockefeller Brothers Fund and the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation.

Slayer Goes Calmly To Death

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)—Richard G. Riser, 33, went calmly to his death in the prison gas chamber Friday for a 1955 double murder.

He had received three reprieves.

Riser and his brother, Roscoe, 34, were convicted of the July 11, 1955, holdup-murder of Earl Hastings and his wife, Pauline, at their cafe near Oakdale, Calif.

Richard Riser was sentenced to death. Roscoe got a life term and is in Folsom Prison. Witnesses said it was Richard who fired the gun.

Senate Votes Ceiling For Wheat Loans

Compromise Bill Passed; Now Goes Before The House

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate voted Friday to put a $35,000 yearly ceiling on price support loans to any one farm or farmer. Then it passed a compromise new wheat program containing the provision.

The limit on price support loans—which amount to subsidies if the farmer cannot sell his crop at more than the support level—was attached to the bill 57-20 at the urging of Sen. John J. Williams (R-Del.)

The compromise wheat program now goes to an uncertain fate in the House. Senate passage came on a standing vote after more than eight hours of debate, some of it heated.

The bill would allow wheat growers several choices, offering higher price supports to those who agreed to curtail their production. The idea is to reduce the surpluses which have been piling up in government hands in recent years.

Sent To House

As sent to the House the bill would retain the present national wheat allotment of 55 million acres.

Wheat farmers would have these three choices:

1. They could retain their present share of the national allotment and receive price supports at 65 per cent of parity, or about $1.53 a bushel. Parity is a computed price said by law to be fair to farmers in relation to their costs.

2. They could reduce plantings 10 per cent below their allotments and receive supports at 75 per cent, or about $1.78 a bushel. This is the support rate under existing law.

3. Or they could reduce plantings 20 per cent below allotments and receive 80 per cent of parity support.

Just before final action, the Senate beat down on a standing vote an administration substitute for the entire bill offered by Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois.

Dirksen said he was advised by the Agriculture Department the Senate bill would increase costs of the present wheat program 150 to 200 million dollars a year.

Substitute Saves

The substitute, he said, would save 200 to 250 millions annually at first and more later.

The limitation on price support loans adopted at the urging of Sen. Williams would apply to all crops whose prices are supported by the government—not just to wheat.

Williams has been protesting for years that these loans, intended originally to help the ordinary farmer, have become primarily a means of pouring millions of dollars to wealthy farm corporations.

Chairman Allen J. Ellender (D-La) of the Senate Agriculture Committee fought the Williams proposal. All the "no" votes on the 57-20 tally were by Democrats.

The House voted last Wednesday to set a $50,000 ceiling on the amount of any one price support contract. However, some said this would permit one farm or farmer to get several separate $50,000 loans, whereas the Williams restriction is tighter—no more than $35,000 to one farm or one farmer. The House attached its provision to a different bill, not yet acted on by the Senate.

NEW YORK (AP)—Rep. Stuyvesant Wainwright (R-NY) said Friday Republican supporters of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller are considering entering his name in the New Hampshire presidential primary next March 8.

'Tis Love In The Air, Elopement Time Is Here

LONDON (UPI)—The elopement season seemed to be in full swing Friday with the disclosure that a rich man's son had run away with the maid.

It was revealed that Jeffrey Herscheson, 20, son of a wealthy silversmith, took the family maid, Sylvia Polentarutti, 20, to Scotland.

Meanwhile, Katherine Dowsett, 20, daughter of a millionaire shipbuilder, and Edward Langley returned to England from Scotland for an attempted reconciliation with the girl's father.

Herscheson and the servant followed the great tradition of English lovebirds and fled to Gretna Green to take advantage of Scotland's more liberal marriage laws. The young man's mother, Mrs. Sally Herscheson, pursued the couple "to tell Jeffrey to come home and have a normal period of courtship with this girl."

"Then if he knows his own mind and still wants to marry her after six months, good luck to him," Mrs. Herscheson said.

The Herschesons earlier offered their son a generous weekly allowance, a car and a directorship in the family firm if he would forget the maid and return home.

But the son said he couldn't go along with the condition of giving up Sylvia. "I love her too much," he said.

FREED — Harry Schweitzer, 75, who parlayed his welfare dole into a modest Wall Street fortune, was let off Scot-free yesterday although he had pleaded guilty to petty larceny. He repaid the New York City Welfare Department $17,000 and the court suspended sentence with no probation. (See story at bottom of page.) (AP Photofax)

Aiken Charges Administration Hurts Farmers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt), until now a virtual down-the-line backer of the Eisenhower administration, turned on it Friday. He charged it with undermining farmers and favoring big corporate interests.

Aiken launched a surprise assault on Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson's newly announced proposal for financing rural electric and telephone programs through a new bank system, rather than by federal loans.

Aiken tore into administration policies which he said had fostered high interest rates detrimental to farmers and to the nation as a whole.

"The American farmer was not born to be a servant of monopolistic interests and so long as I can help to prevent it, he never will be," Aiken told the Senate.

What touched off Aiken's attack was a proposal Benson made Thursday night in a speech at Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Benson suggested creation of a bank to take over financing of the rural power and telephone system. As Benson envisioned it, rural cooperatives would operate and eventually own the bank.

Under current law, capital needs of such rural power and phone systems are provided by low interest loans from the Rural Electrification Administration, which operates under the Agriculture Department.

The Vermonter blamed high interest rates during this administration for boosting national debt chargest o more than eight billion dollars a year—"two billions more than costs of all the farm programs."

"Why did not the administration raise its voice when the corporate utilities were getting a subsidy in the form of rapid tax writeoffs to the tune of 3½ billion dollars?" Aiken demanded.

For more than six years, Aiken—as senior Republican on the Senate Agriculture Committee — has frequently gone to the firing line to defend Benson from Democratic and Republican criticism and from efforts to cut away Benson's powers.

HAVANA (AP)—Two more war crimes executions were announced Friday, bringing to 553 the total since the revolutionary victory Jan. 1.

May Reopen Long-Stalled Negotiations

Herter Tells Soviet Measures Are Not Linked To Germany

GENEVA (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter made a new bid to the Soviet Union Friday to resume the long-stalled general disarmament negotiations.

Herter told Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in the Big Four conference that the United States does not irrevocably link disarmament measures with German unification.

"We are prepared to resume general disarmament negotiations in an appropriate forum at any time," he said.

The tall American diplomat appealed to Gromyko to accept the Western peace plan linking German unification over a 30-month period with successive stages of a system for European security and a start on global disarmament.

Prepared To Resume

But he made plain that the United States is prepared to resume the general disarmament talks—which stalled in the U.N. two years ago—apart from Big Four efforts to bridge the East-West differences over Germany.

In the fast-paced session of little more than an hour that wound up the second week of the conference, the Western powers also called on the Soviets anew to accept a stopgap solution of the Berlin crisis.

French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville, speaking for the United States, Britain and France, told Gromyko that "it is normal and the easiest thing to do" to reunite Berlin under four-power control as the first step toward ending the division of Germany.

The Frenchman gave no hint that the West is prepared to rip this Berlin proposal out of its package plan for a German settlement. Phase one of this plan calls for the union of East and West Berlin through free elections under four-power or U.N. supervision.

Press Big Three

In advance of the session, West Germany pressed the Western Big Three powers to wring a permanent hands-off-Berlin pledge from Moscow as the price for a summit meeting of their government chiefs with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Couve de Murville, speaking for 18 minutes, and Herter in a 13-minute speech, wound up the presentation of the West's massive peace plan for Germany.

Herter, urging Gromyko to consider this plan, said it is of "major significance for the establishment of lasting peace in Europe."

As Gromyko listened calmly, the American said the 72 million Germans can be reunited without unleashing the danger of a new German aggression on the Soviet Union or other nations "provided appropriate security measures are agreed upon."

In another development, the Soviets announced the East-West clash over the admission of Communist Poland and Czechoslovakia to the conference has flared anew on the sidelines.

Lighter GM Car Planned

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — General Motors announced Friday it will build a new, lighter Chevrolet this fall, thus joining its two chief competitors — Ford and Chrysler—for the small car market.

Disclosure of plans for the compact auto, to be called the Corvair, was made at the 51st annual stockholders' meeting by Frederic G. Donner, board chairman of the world's biggest private manufacturing firm. A similar car will be made by GM's Canadian affiliate.

Corvair details were kept secret—a competitive advantage all auto companies seek to retain—but Donner hinted the new car would have "certain features which are new to the American automotive industry."

Rumors, which officials here refused to confirm, say the Corvair will have a rear air-cooled aluminum engine.

Pricewise, it will be the cheapest Chevrolet on the road—but how much cheaper was not disclosed. A GM spokesman said none of the 1960 models have been priced for the coming year.

Ford and Chrysler announced Thursday plans for smaller cars.

The Corvair will compete with the European imports and the American produced Ramblers and Larks.

Schweitzer came here from Poland in 1923. He went on relief in 1938 after ill health forced his retirement as a hospital orderly.

Schweitzer received $71.10 a month from the Welfare Department. His living expenses were extremely modest.

By 1951, Schweitzer had built up a $4,000 nest egg with which he plunged into the stock market. He had studied it closely—one of his standard items of expenses was a nickel a day for a morning newspaper that carried stock market news.

Last Jan. 8, in the midst of a city crackdown on relief chiselers, Schweitzer was arrested and it was disclosed that his market holdings were worth $21,000.

Rising Taxes Bring Cost Of Living Upward

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rising state and local taxes helped shove living costs back up to record levels last month.

The Labor Department reported Friday that recent boosts in sales and excise taxes on such items as gasoline, tobacco, telephones and liquors are having an impact.

It said taxes already enacted and contemplated—as states and cities seek more revenue—could boost living costs to still higher peaks this summer.

The April rise was only two-tenths of one per cent but it put the government's living cost index back up to the highest-ever rate of last July and November at 123.9 per cent of the 1947-49 base.

April costs were three-tenths of one per cent higher than in April last year. But over-all living cost changes have been moderate for nearly a near now.

Despite the rise, both the spendable earnings of factory workers and the purchasing power of their pay dollars scored new highs. Because prices have remained fairly stable while earnings have increased, the average factory worker now has about 10 per cent more purchasing power than a year ago.

The record for spendable earnings—the amount received in pay envelopes after tax deductions—is an average $80.68 a week for the factory worker with three dependents and $73.14 for the single worker. The Labor Department attributed the 50-cent weekly increase over March to both higher wages and overtime hours.

Most of the 1½ million workers due for a quarterly pay adjustment based on the April living cost index failed to get any wage increase. This is due to insufficient change from the January index.

Among those whose pay remains unaffected are about a million auto workers. About 160,000 workers in a score of other industries get raises of from one-half to one cent an hour.

Food costs declined one-tenth of one per cent in April as lower prices for eggs, poultry and milk more than offset seasonablly higher prices for fresh fruits and vegetables.

Housing and clothing costs remained unchanged but prices of transportation, medical care, recreation and personal care were up.

The transportation cost rise was attributed to increased prices for used cars, gasoline, tires and auto insurance. New car prices were lower as dealers gave bigger discounts and stocks rose to a near record.

Wrong Diagnosis

MAIDENHEAD, England (UPI)—An autopsy on the body of Herbert S. Coleman, 65, showed Friday that he was suffering from sclerosis when he gassed himself to death.

Nurse Sits Atop Roof To Prevent Moving House

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A nurse sat on the top of her garage to prevent a house from being moved over it, while negotiations proceeded to determine what she should be paid.

The attorney for the nurse, Kay Webber, 33, a widow, said that moving the house through the air over her garage in a narrow alley was trespass. Finally Mrs. Webber agreed Thursday to payment of $225 and allowed the house to be moved over the garage and to the rear of a neighbor's property.

Brazil Marines Fire On Crowd In Ferry Riot

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—Brazilian marines opened fire with submachine guns and pistols Friday on an angry crowd that rioted for three hours after a ferryboat strike stranded thousands of commuters.

The mob burned the ferry dock, offices and a restaurant in downtown Niteroi, a town of 200,000 across the bay from Rio. Stores were looted and a dockside warehouse destroyed.

Government sources said Marine gunfire killed one person and wounded between 30 and 50. Newspaper reports said up to 12 were killed and 64 wounded. The Niteroi hospital said it had 84 patients injured either by gunfire or the rioting.

The trouble broke out during the morning rush hour after ferry workers staged a sudden strike at midnight demanding pay inceases promised them May 1.

The navy provided a launch to transport commuters across the bay to Rio, normally a 20-minute trip. Eyewitnesses said commuters surged out of control attempting to board the launch. They said the navy commander then ordered the marines to fire and bar the crowd from taking over the vessel.

President Juscelino Kubitschek ordered the government to seize the Carretera Ferry Co. on the ground it had been receiving government subsidies but not passing them on to its employes. He also ordered the disputed back wages paid.

Governors Plan Russian Visit

NEW YORK (AP)—Nine state governors are going to learn at first hand what goes on inside the Soviet Union.

Five Republican and four Democratic governors are scheduled to leave here June 23 for a three-week tour of the Soviet Union to study how regional government is handled.

They will visit Moscow, Leningrad, Kiev, Tiflis and Tashkent.

The nine governors are: Leroy Collins of Florida, Democrat, chairman of the National Governor's Conference and head of the mission; George D. Clyde, Republican, Utah; John E. Davis, Republican, North Dakota; Luther H. Hodges, Democrat, North Carolina; Robert B. Meyner, Democrat, New Jersey; Stephen L. R. McNichols, Democrat, Colorado; Robert E. Smylie, Republican, Idaho; William G. Stratton, Republican, Illinois, and Cecil H. Underwood, Republican, West Virginia.

They will explore the possibility of setting up a program to exchange visits of Soviet and American state and local government officials.

The Institute of International Education in New York and New York University invited the Executive Committee of the National Governors Conference to make the survey, a spokesman for the institute said.

Money for the tour was provided by the Rockefeller Brothers Fund and the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation.

Slayer Goes Calmly To Death

He had received three reprieves.

Riser and his brother, Roscoe, 34, were convicted of the July 11, 1955, holdup-murder of Earl Hastings and his wife, Pauline, at their cafe near Oakdale, Calif.

Richard Riser was sentenced to death. Roscoe got a life term and is in Folsom Prison. Witnesses said it was Richard who fired the gun.

Senate Votes Ceiling For Wheat Loans

Compromise Bill Passed; Now Goes Before The House

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate voted Friday to put a $35,000 yearly ceiling on price support loans to any one farm or farmer. Then it passed a compromise new wheat program containing the provision.

The limit on price support loans—which amount to subsidies if the farmer cannot sell his crop at more than the support level—was attached to the bill 57-20 at the urging of Sen. John J. Williams (R-Del.)

The compromise wheat program now goes to an uncertain fate in the House. Senate passage came on a standing vote after more than eight hours of debate, some of it heated.

The bill would allow wheat growers several choices, offering higher price supports to those who agreed to curtail their production. The idea is to reduce the surpluses which have been piling up in government hands in recent years.

Sent To House

As sent to the House the bill would retain the present national wheat allotment of 55 million acres.

Wheat farmers would have these three choices:

1. They could retain their present share of the national allotment and receive price supports at 65 per cent of parity, or about $1.53 a bushel. Parity is a computed price said by law to be fair to farmers in relation to their costs.

2. They could reduce plantings 10 per cent below their allotments and receive supports at 75 per cent, or about $1.78 a bushel. This is the support rate under existing law.

3. Or they could reduce plantings 20 per cent below allotments and receive 80 per cent of parity support.

Just before final action, the Senate beat down on a standing vote an administration substitute for the entire bill offered by Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois.

Dirksen said he was advised by the Agriculture Department the Senate bill would increase costs of the present wheat program 150 to 200 million dollars a year.

Substitute Saves

The substitute, he said, would save 200 to 250 millions annually at first and more later.

The limitation on price support loans adopted at the urging of Sen. Williams would apply to all crops whose prices are supported by the government—not just to wheat.

Williams has been protesting for years that these loans, intended originally to help the ordinary farmer, have become primarily a means of pouring millions of dollars to wealthy farm corporations.

Chairman Allen J. Ellender (D-La) of the Senate Agriculture Committee fought the Williams proposal. All the "no" votes on the 57-20 tally were by Democrats.

The House voted last Wednesday to set a $50,000 ceiling on the amount of any one price support contract. However, some said this would permit one farm or farmer to get several separate $50,000 loans, whereas the Williams restriction is tighter—no more than $35,000 to one farm or one farmer. The House attached its provision to a different bill, not yet acted on by the Senate.

'Tis Love In The Air, Elopement Time Is Here

LONDON (UPI)—The elopement season seemed to be in full swing Friday with the disclosure that a rich man's son had run away with the maid.

It was revealed that Jeffrey Herscheson, 20, son of a wealthy silversmith, took the family maid, Sylvia Polentarutti, 20, to Scotland.

Meanwhile, Katherine Dowsett, 20, daughter of a millionaire shipbuilder, and Edward Langley returned to England from Scotland for an attempted reconciliation with the girl's father.

Herscheson and the servant followed the great tradition of English lovebirds and fled to Gretna Green to take advantage of Scotland's more liberal marriage laws. The young man's mother, Mrs. Sally Herscheson, pursued the couple "to tell Jeffrey to come home and have a normal period of courtship with this girl."

"Then if he knows his own mind and still wants to marry her after six months, good luck to him," Mrs. Herscheson said.

The Herschesons earlier offered their son a generous weekly allowance, a car and a directorship in the family firm if he would forget the maid and return home.

But the son said he couldn't go along with the condition of giving up Sylvia. "I love her too much," he said.

Aiken Charges Administration Hurts Farmers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt), until now a virtual down-the-line backer of the Eisenhower administration, turned on it Friday. He charged it with undermining farmers and favoring big corporate interests.

Aiken launched a surprise assault on Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson's newly announced proposal for financing rural electric and telephone programs through a new bank system, rather than by federal loans.

Aiken tore into administration policies which he said had fostered high interest rates detrimental to farmers and to the nation as a whole.

"The American farmer was not born to be a servant of monopolistic interests and so long as I can help to prevent it, he never will be," Aiken told the Senate.

What touched off Aiken's attack was a proposal Benson made Thursday night in a speech at Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Benson suggested creation of a bank to take over financing of the rural power and telephone system. As Benson envisioned it, rural cooperatives would operate and eventually own the bank.

Under current law, capital needs of such rural power and phone systems are provided by low interest loans from the Rural Electrification Administration, which operates under the Agriculture Department.

The Vermonter blamed high interest rates during this administration for boosting national debt chargest o more than eight billion dollars a year—"two billions more than costs of all the farm programs."

"Why did not the administration raise its voice when the corporate utilities were getting a subsidy in the form of rapid tax writeoffs to the tune of 3½ billion dollars?" Aiken demanded.

For more than six years, Aiken—as senior Republican on the Senate Agriculture Committee — has frequently gone to the firing line to defend Benson from Democratic and Republican criticism and from efforts to cut away Benson's powers.

May Reopen Long-Stalled Negotiations

Herter Tells Soviet Measures Are Not Linked To Germany

GENEVA (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter made a new bid to the Soviet Union Friday to resume the long-stalled general disarmament negotiations.

Herter told Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in the Big Four conference that the United States does not irrevocably link disarmament measures with German unification.

"We are prepared to resume general disarmament negotiations in an appropriate forum at any time," he said.

The tall American diplomat appealed to Gromyko to accept the Western peace plan linking German unification over a 30-month period with successive stages of a system for European security and a start on global disarmament.

Prepared To Resume

But he made plain that the United States is prepared to resume the general disarmament talks—which stalled in the U.N. two years ago—apart from Big Four efforts to bridge the East-West differences over Germany.

In the fast-paced session of little more than an hour that wound up the second week of the conference, the Western powers also called on the Soviets anew to accept a stopgap solution of the Berlin crisis.

French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville, speaking for the United States, Britain and France, told Gromyko that "it is normal and the easiest thing to do" to reunite Berlin under four-power control as the first step toward ending the division of Germany.

The Frenchman gave no hint that the West is prepared to rip this Berlin proposal out of its package plan for a German settlement. Phase one of this plan calls for the union of East and West Berlin through free elections under four-power or U.N. supervision.

Press Big Three

In advance of the session, West Germany pressed the Western Big Three powers to wring a permanent hands-off-Berlin pledge from Moscow as the price for a summit meeting of their government chiefs with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Couve de Murville, speaking for 18 minutes, and Herter in a 13-minute speech, wound up the presentation of the West's massive peace plan for Germany.

Herter, urging Gromyko to consider the proposal, said it is of "major significance for the establishment of lasting peace in Europe."

As Gromyko listened calmly, the American said the 72 million Germans can be reunited without unleashing the danger of a new German aggression on the Soviet Union or other nations "provided appropriate security measures are agreed upon."

In another development, the Soviets announced the East-West clash over the admission of Communist Poland and Czechoslovakia to the conference has flared anew on the sidelines.

Lighter GM Car Planned

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — General Motors announced Friday it will bring out a new, lighter Chevrolet this fall, thus joining its two chief competitors — Ford and Chrysler—for the small car market.

Disclosure of plans for the compact auto, to be called the Corvair, was made at the 51st annual stockholders' meeting by Frederic G. Donner, board chairman of the world's biggest private manufacturing firm. A similar car will be made by GM's Canadian affiliate.

Corvair details were kept secret—a competitive advantage all auto companies seek to retain—but Donner hinted the new car would have "certain features which are new to the American automotive industry."

Rumors, which officials here refused to confirm, say the Corvair will have a rear air-cooled aluminum engine.

Pricewise, it will be the cheapest Chevrolet on the road—but how much cheaper was not disclosed. A GM spokesman said none of the 1960 models have been priced for the coming year.

Ford and Chrysler announced Thursday plans for smaller cars.

Mass Slayer Gets Reprieve, Inquiry Asked

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI) — Red-haired Charles Starkweather gained at least two more weeks of life Friday when a federal judge heeded a father's desperate, pre-dawn plea and stayed the mass slayer's execution 90 minutes before he was to die.

Federal District Judge Richard E. Robinson of Omaha ordered the delay so there could be further court inquiry into Guy Starkweather's charges his son's constitutional rights have been violated by his lack of an attorney.

The Starkweathers fired the 20-year-old ex-garbage collector's counsel nearly a year ago because the lawyers contended the youth was insane when he killed 11 persons in Nebraska and Wyoming in December, 1957, and January, 1958.

Word of the stay reached the thunderstorm - rocked Nebraska Prison only 20 minutes before the youth's head and legs were to be shaved so the death - dealing electrodes could be fastened securely.

The Rev. Robert Klein, prison chaplain, told young Starkweather about 4:30 a.m. c.s.t. that he would not have to keep his 6 a.m. appointment with the executioner.

Guy Starkweather had asked Federal District Judge Robert Van Pelt of Lincoln Thursday for a writ of habeas corpus to stay the execution until a further appeal could be prepared. Gov. Ralph Brooks had refused to intervene and the State Supreme Court had refused to order a new trial.

Van Pelt denied the request.

Starkweather telephoned Robinson at home about 2 a.m. The judge asked the slayer's father to send him a telegram, giving the reasons for seeking an appeal.

Robinson received the wire at his downtown Omaha office about 4 a.m. — two hours before Starkweather was to enter the death chamber.

Robinson then issued an order saying it appeared Starkweather "is and has been without" proper legal counsel and might be in custody "in violation of the Constitution."

The order was telephoned to Acting Warden John Greenholtz and Governor Brooks. Greenholtz, through Rev. Klein, told Starkweather. Brooks, through his administrative assistant, notified newsmen about 5 a.m.

If federal jurists rule Starkweather's rights were protected, it will be up to Greenholtz, as warden, to execute Starkweather as soon as arrangements can be made.

The youth's companion—he says willingly, she says unwillingly—on his murder spree, Caril Ann Fugate, now 15, is serving a life sentence in the Women's Reformatory at York, west of Lincoln. Attendants said at noon she had not been informed of the delay. Her attorney still hoped Starkweather would clear Caril of complicity and welcomed the stay.

Sound Economy Key To Success President Says

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — President Eisenhower said Friday that only with a sound economy at home can the United States meet its challenges in a world of armed uneasiness.

He renewed his plea for prudent Federal spending in a speech dedicating a new auditorium at St. John's College to the memory of Francis Scott Key, composer of the "Star Spangled Banner" and a St. John's graduate.

Eisenhower told the gathering of 900:

"Our whole position in world economic affairs is determined by the health of our economy and the soundness of our money.

"If we should neglect these at home, we could soon become powerless abroad—our prosperity, our security, our freedom could be in jeopardy."

The President spoke of the importance of education in developing an understanding of world affairs.

"We have discovered that we cannot separate what we do abroad from what we do at home," he said.

"We have found that our efforts to promote a freer flow of world trade are hurt wherever there exists an unreasonable demand for protectionism among our own people."

Then, indirectly prodding Congress to revise the farm program, he added:

"We have learned that our interest in stable world markets is compromised by an outdated farm program which stimulates and subsidizes a tremendous farm surplus which overhangs the exchanges of the world; we have learned that unnecessary spending at home may foreclose our essential spending abroad."

Eisenhower arrived here by helicopter from Washington and departed immediately after his speech for his Gettysburg estate.

The foyer of the building and the auditorium form a memorial to Key a 1796 graduate of the college, and 25 of his descendants were on hand for the ceremonies.

Eisenhower's arrival here was literally in a cloudy of dust—stirred up when his helicopter set down on the back campus.

He was met by Gov. J. Millard Tawes, former Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin, college president Richard D. Weigle, and Richard W. Cleveland, president of the college Board of Visitors and Governors and son of former President Grover Cleveland.

It will be about 80 feet long and have a top speed of about 15 knots.

Mitchell Asks Better Jobless Benefits, Aid

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell called Friday for improved unemployment benefits and federal aid to distressed areas to rescue communities not sharing in the country's general prosperity.

He said an extensive study showed that chronic unemployment was concentrated largely in the northeast and north central states. For example, one out of every 12 auto workers still is out of a job.

Mitchell sent copies of a 40-page Labor Department booklet, entitled "The Unemployed — Spring 1959," to each member of Congress and all state governors to dramatize the need for legislation to attack problems created by long-term unemployment.

The Senate has approved a $389,500,000 Democratic program of federal help for distressed areas while a similar 251-million dollar program has been okayed by the House Banking Committee. Both are far bigger than the administration wants.

On the other hand, the Democratic - controlled House Ways & Means Committee recently refused to extend the unemployment benefits program to an extra 3,200,000 workers whom the President covered. It also rejected union demands that the federal government be ordered to fix the amounts and duration of benefits paid by the states.

Mitchell's report said "the economy in general is making a sustained and vigorous recovery, but there remains people and places which are not sharing in the general prosperity."

The Labor Department reported Thursday that 14 major industrial centers had been removed from its list of areas of "substantial" unemployment. But 60 other areas still remain on the list.

Mitchell's report showed that about 1,400,000 persons have been jobless for at least 15 weeks and 700,000 of these have been job-hunting for six months or more. The secretary called this "the most serious aspect of the current unemployment problem."

He said the present unemployment compensation system is inadequate because too many workers have exhausted their benefits and two-fifths of the 3,627,000 jobless last month were not covered.

Laborers and semi-skilled workers account for two out of every five unemployed workers. The hard-hit mining and railroad industries continue to lay off workers.

Ten states — New York, Pennsylvania, California, Michigan, Ohio, Illinois, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Indiana, and Texas — now account for nearly two-thirds of hard-core joblessness. The Rocky Mountain states and Central Plains states have very low unemployment rates.

There are still 700,000 unemployed Negroes. They comprise one-fifth of all jobless workers, which is about twice their proportion of the labor force.

Would-Be Bank Robber Just Did Not Have It

BALTIMORE (AP) — A would-be bank robber demonstrated how not-to-do-it today.

He walked in a branch of the Equitable Trust Co. several times and just stood around. He was rather conspicuous in a bright yellow sweater.

A teller finally told him to get out. He got.

Then he returned and shoved a paper bag at a teller.

"Fill it up," he demanded.

Walter A. Koerber, who had been taking it all in, walked up and ordered "Get out and get out quick."

President Jokes At Address To St. John's Class

Speaking at St. John's College, a small liberal arts school near the academy, the President said he had a message "of some delicacy" to deliver before his main address.

The midshipmen, he said, had tried in vain to get "an unfeeling military administration" to give them enough time after dances to return their girl friends to their hotels or homes.

Failing in this, Eisenhower said, they had asked him to ask the male students at St. John's to stop "post dating" their girls after the hops.

The extemporaneous joke got a good laugh.

Earlier, the President chuckled when Richard F. Cleveland, president of the Board at St. John's, referred to the "well-deserved respite" from political life being enjoyed by former Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin.

McKeldin, a Republican, nominated Eisenhower for President at the 1952 national convention. He competed two terms as governor and had a planetarium at St. John's named in his honor Friday for his friendship to the college.

But he was trounced earlier this month by Democrat J. Harold Grady in a try for mayor of Baltimore.

Cleveland, son of former President Grover Cleveland, said he knew McKeldin is on "a vacation not of his own choosing."

"But," he said, "we hope now he'll have a chance to visit the planetarium and view the stars and other heavenly bodies."

Ike Plans Visit To Beltsville

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower plans a visit Monday to the Agriculture Department's research center at nearby Beltsville, Md.

The White House said Eisenhower will be accompanied by Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

A farm owner himself, the President wants to get a look at some of the Agriculture Department's latest research projects.

It will be Eisenhower's second visit to the center. The first was shortly after he took office in 1953.

Thief Takes Papers Worth $90,000

TOWSON, Md. (AP) — A bundle of papers worth $90,000 — but only to the owner — was stolen from a safe in the home of Harry W. Wright, Baltimore county liquor distributor.

However, the thief also took $3,000 in cash from a safe in the club cellar. The valuable papers were non-negotiable securities.

The theft apparently took place Wednesday night while the Wrights were away. Wright discovered it Thursday night.

Man Faked Death To Wed College Co-Ed

PITTSBURGH (UPI) —A part-time minister and university instructor faked his own death so he could shed his wife and two children to marry an 18-year-old coed, detectives said Friday.

Police said the fantastic death scheme of Ronald Field, 27, an instructor at the University of Pittsburgh, fooled authorities and even his father until the truth was learned from his girl friend.

The girl was identified by Allegheny County Detective Chief Ted Botula as Carol Hickey, an attractive journalism freshman from Columbia, Pa. She said she had planned to join Field somewhere in the West after he dropped out of sight.

She said Field wrecked his foreign automobile at the foot of a steep hill near the Monongahela River May 13 to make it appear that he had fallen out and drowned.

So realistic was the "death" scene that firemen dragged the river for two days in an effort to recover the body.

"I knew he was married, but he wasn't getting along well with his wife," Miss Hickey said, "and we were in love."

She said he had given her a diamond engagement ring and that they had gone to Virginia in an unsuccessful attempt to get married even though she knew it would have made him a bigamist. She said they could not get a license because she forgot her birth certificate.

Field's wife said she last saw her husband May 12 when he said he was going to take his car to a garage for repairs. The wrecked car was found the next day.

The girl said her last contact with Field came Saturday when he telephoned her from Tuscon, Ariz. She said he apparently hitch-hiked out west.

The girl's mother was stunned by the news.

"I just don't know what to do." she said. "My husband won't be home until tonight, and I'll have to tell him. . ."

Miss Hickey said she brought Field home to visit her parents and introduced him under another name.

"He was a very pleasant fellow," the mother said, "and told us he was from Virginia. They were going to get married. We even introduced him to our minister."

Field's father said he was going out West to look for his son "before he tries anything more foolish."

So well did Field plan the death scheme that he failed to leave the grade records of the students in his classes. As a result, they will have to take special exams to get credit for the course.

Detectives said there were no charges against either Field or the coed.

Mass Slayer Gets Reprieve, Inquiry Asked

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI) — Red-haired Charles Starkweather gained at least two more weeks of life Friday when a federal judge heeded a father's desperate, pre-dawn plea and stayed the mass slayer's execution 90 minutes before he was to die.

Federal District Judge Richard E. Robinson of Omaha ordered the delay so there could be further court inquiry into Guy Starkweather's charges his son's constitutional rights have been violated by his lack of an attorney.

The Starkweathers fired the 20-year-old ex-garbage collector's counsel nearly a year ago because the lawyers contended the youth was insane when he killed 11 persons in Nebraska and Wyoming in December, 1957, and January, 1958.

Word of the stay reached the thunderstorm - rocked Nebraska Prison only 20 minutes before the youth's head and legs were to be shaved so the death - dealing electrodes could be fastened securely.

The Rev. Robert Klein, prison chaplain, told young Starkweather about 4:30 a.m. c.s.t. that he would not have to keep his 6 a.m. appointment with the executioner.

Guy Starkweather had asked Federal District Judge Robert Van Pelt of Lincoln Thursday for a writ of habeas corpus to stay the execution until a further appeal could be prepared. Gov. Ralph Brooks had refused to intervene and the State Supreme Court had refused to order a new trial.

Van Pelt denied the request.

Starkweather telephoned Robinson at home about 2 a.m. The judge asked the slayer's father to send him a telegram, giving the reasons for seeking an appeal.

Robinson received the wire at his downtown Omaha office about 4 a.m. — two hours before Starkweather was to enter the death chamber.

Robinson then issued an order saying it appeared Starkweather "is and has been without" proper legal counsel and might be in custody "in violation of the Constitution."

The order was telephoned to Acting Warden John Greenholtz and Governor Brooks. Greenholtz, through Rev. Klein, told Starkweather. Brooks, through his administrative assistant, notified newsmen about 5 a.m.

If federal jurists rule Starkweather's rights were protected, it will be up to Greenholtz, as warden, to execute Starkweather as soon as arrangements can be made.

The youth's companion—he says willingly, she says unwillingly—on his murder spree, Caril Ann Fugate, now 15, is serving a life sentence in the Women's Reformatory at York, west of Lincoln. Attendants said at noon she had not been informed of the delay. Her attorney still hoped Starkweather would clear Caril of complicity and welcomed the stay.

Police said Houser had been under psychiatric treatment.

Sound Economy Key To Success President Says

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — President Eisenhower said Friday that only with a sound economy at home can the United States meet its challenges in a world of armed uneasiness.

He renewed his plea for prudent Federal spending in a speech dedicating a new auditorium at St. John's College to the memory of Francis Scott Key, composer of the "Star Spangled Banner" and a St. John's graduate.

Eisenhower told the gathering of 900:

"Our whole position in world economic affairs is determined by the health of our economy and the soundness of our money.

"If we should neglect these at home, we could soon become powerless abroad—our prosperity, our security, our freedom could be in jeopardy."

The President spoke of the importance of education in developing an understanding of world affairs.

"We have discovered that we cannot separate what we do abroad from what we do at home," he said.

"We have found that our efforts to promote a freer flow of world trade are hurt wherever there exists an unreasonable demand for protectionism among our own people."

Then, indirectly prodding Congress to revise the farm program, he added:

"We have learned that our interest in stable world markets is compromised by an outdated farm program which stimulates and subsidizes a tremendous farm surplus which overhangs the exchanges of the world; we have learned that unnecessary spending at home may foreclose our essential spending abroad."

Eisenhower arrived here by helicopter from Washington and departed immediately after his speech for his Gettysburg estate.

The foyer of the building and the auditorium form a memorial to Key, a 1796 graduate of the college, and 25 of his descendants were on hand for the ceremonies.

Eisenhower's arrival here was literally in a cloudy of dust—stirred up when his helicopter set down on the back campus.

He was met by Gov. J. Millard Tawes, former Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin, college president Richard D. Weigle, and Richard W. Cleveland, president of the college Board of Visitors and Governors and son of former President Grover Cleveland.

It will be about 80 feet long and have a top speed of about 15 knots.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A motorcycle rider was fatally injured Friday in a collision with a car on the Baltimore - Washington Parkway.

Jack C. Lyle, 29, Adelphi, Mo., died in Prince Georges County Hospital 3½ hours after the accident.

Mitchell Asks Better Jobless Benefits, Aid

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell called Friday for improved unemployment benefits and federal aid to distressed areas to rescue communities not sharing in the country's general prosperity.

He said an extensive study showed that chronic unemployment was concentrated largely in the northeast and north central states. For example, one out of every 12 auto workers still is out of a job.

Mitchell sent copies of a 40-page Labor Department booklet, entitled "The Unemployed — Spring 1959," to each member of Congress and all state governors to dramatize the need for legislation to attack problems created by long-term unemployment.

The Senate has approved a $389,500,000 Democratic program of federal help for distressed areas while a similar 251-million dollar program has been okayed by the House Banking Committee. Both are far bigger than the administration wants.

On the other hand, the Democratic - controlled House Ways & Means Committee recently refused to extend the unemployment benefits program to an extra 3,200,000 workers whom the President covered. It also rejected union demands that the federal government be ordered to fix the amounts and duration of benefits paid by the states.

Mitchell's report said "the economy in general is making a sustained and vigorous recovery, but there remains people and places which are not sharing in the general prosperity."

The Labor Department reported Thursday that 14 major industrial centers had been removed from its list of areas of "substantial" unemployment. But 60 other areas still remain on the list.

Mitchell's report showed that about 1,400,000 persons have been jobless for at least 15 weeks and 700,000 of these have been job-hunting for six months or more. The secretary called this "the most serious aspect of the current unemployment problem."

He said the present unemployment compensation system is inadequate because too many workers have exhausted their benefits and two-fifths of the 3,627,000 jobless last month were not covered.

Laborers and semi-skilled workers account for two out of every five unemployed workers. The hard-hit mining and railroad industries continue to lay off workers.

Ten states — New York, Pennsylvania, California, Michigan, Ohio, Illinois, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Indiana, and Texas — now account for nearly two-thirds of hard-core joblessness. The Rocky Mountain states and Central Plains states have very low unemployment rates.

There are still 700,000 unemployed Negroes. They comprise one-fifth of all jobless workers, which is about twice their proportion of the labor force.

'Copter Crash Injures Two

The two-seat helicopter was one of two Army helicopters being tested for performance and stability control at Patuxent.

Would-Be Bank Robber Just Did Not Have It

BALTIMORE (AP) — A would-be bank robber demonstrated how not-to-do-it today.

He walked in a branch of the Equitable Trust Co. several times and just stood around. He was rather conspicuous in a bright yellow sweater.

A teller finally told him to get out. He got.

Then he returned and shoved a paper bag at a teller.

"Fill it up," he demanded.

Walter A. Koerber, who had been taking it all in, walked up and ordered "Get out and get out quick."

President Jokes At Address To St. John's Class

Speaking at St. John's College, a small liberal arts school near the academy, the President said he had a message "of some delicacy" to deliver before his main address.

The midshipmen, he said, had tried in vain to get "an unfeeling military administration" to give them enough time after dances to return their girl friends to their hotels or homes.

Failing in this, Eisenhower said, they had asked him to ask the male students at St. John's to stop "post dating" their girls after the hops.

The extemporaneous joke got a good laugh.

Earlier, the President chuckled when Richard F. Cleveland, president of the Board at St. John's, referred to the "well-deserved respite" from political life being enjoyed by former Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin.

McKeldin, a Republican, nominated Eisenhower for President at the 1952 national convention. He competed two terms as governor and had a planetarium at St. John's named in his honor Friday for his friendship to the college.

But he was trounced earlier this month by Democrat J. Harold Grady in a try for mayor of Baltimore.

Cleveland, son of former President Grover Cleveland, said he knew McKeldin is on "a vacation not of his own choosing."

"But," he said, "we hope now he'll have a chance to visit the planetarium and view the stars and other heavenly bodies."

Ike Plans Visit To Beltsville

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower plans a visit Monday to the Agriculture Department's research center at nearby Beltsville, Md.

The White House said Eisenhower will be accompanied by Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

A farm owner himself, the President wants to get a look at some of the Agriculture Department's latest research projects.

It will be Eisenhower's second visit to the center. The first was shortly after he took office in 1953.

Thief Takes Papers Worth $90,000

TOWSON, Md. (AP) — A bundle of papers worth $90,000 — but only to the owner — was stolen from a safe in the home of Harry W. Wright, Baltimore county liquor distributor.

However, the thief also took $3,000 in cash from a safe in the club cellar. The valuable papers were non-negotiable securities.

The theft apparently took place Wednesday night while the Wrights were away. Wright discovered it Thursday night.

Man Faked Death To Wed College Co-Ed

PITTSBURGH (UPI) —A part-time minister and university instructor faked his own death so he could shed his wife and two children to marry an 18-year-old coed, detectives said Friday.

Police said the fantastic death scheme of Ronald Field, 27, an instructor at the University of Pittsburgh, fooled authorities and even his father until the truth was learned from his girl friend.

The girl was identified by Allegheny County Detective Chief Ted Botula as Carol Hickey, an attractive journalism freshman from Columbia, Pa. She said she had planned to join Field somewhere in the West after he dropped out of sight.

She said Field wrecked his foreign automobile at the foot of a steep hill near the Monongahela River May 13 to make it appear that he had fallen out and drowned.

So realistic was the "death" scene that firemen dragged the river for two days in an effort to recover the body.

"I knew he was married, but he wasn't getting along well with his wife," Miss Hickey said, "and we were in love."

She said he had given her a diamond engagement ring and that they had gone to Virginia in an unsuccessful attempt to get married even though she knew it would have made him a bigamist. She said they could not get a license because she forgot her birth certificate.

Field's wife said she last saw her husband May 12 when he said he was going to take his car to a garage for repairs. The wrecked car was found the next day.

The girl said her last contact with Field came Saturday when he telephoned her from Tuscon, Ariz. She said he apparently hitch-hiked out west.

The girl's mother was stunned by the news.

"I just don't know what to do," she said. "My husband won't be home until tonight, and I'll have to tell him. . ."

Miss Hickey said she brought Field home to visit her parents and introduced him under another name.

"He was a very pleasant fellow," the mother said, "and told us he was from Virginia. They were going to get married. We even introduced him to our minister."

Field's father said he was going out West to look for his son "before he tries anything more foolish."

So well did Field plan the death scheme that he failed to leave the grade records of the students in his classes. As a result, they will have to take special exams to get credit for the course.

Detectives said there were no charges against either Field or the coed.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

When does a baby start to think?

Nobody knows, exactly. But thoughts do come by association. Baby eagerly responds to the sight of a bottle because experience has proven that the bottle offers both satisfaction and comfort.

Because baby does learn by association, it is important that parents take care to enlarge their childrens' horizons as they grow. A very small child will respond to a simple prayer. And a child of three will find great enjoyment in attending Church School geared for youngsters of that age.

Religious instruction and guidance is not for the mature only—it is needed regularly by everyone. The spiritual life of your child needs constant cultivation, just as the mind needs day by day development and the physical body needs exercise and training.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

When does a baby start to think?

Nobody knows, exactly. But thoughts do come by association. Baby eagerly responds to the sight of a bottle because experience has proven that the bottle offers both satisfaction and comfort.

Because baby does learn by association, it is important that parents take care to enlarge their childrens' horizons as they grow. A very small child will respond to a simple prayer. And a child of three will find great enjoyment in attending Church School geared for youngsters of that age.

Religious instruction and guidance is not for the mature only—it is needed regularly by everyone. The spiritual life of your child needs constant cultivation, just as the mind needs day by day development and the physical body needs exercise and training.

Commissioners Appoint Three For Nurse Duty

Three local and area women were appointed to jobs in Allegany County institutions yesterday morning during a meeting of the Board of Commissioners.

Mrs. Anna Counihan, of 472 Waverly Terrace, was appointed practical nurse on a probationary basis at the County Infirmary.

Pansy Leona Oster, 332 Bedford Street, also was appointed a practical nurse at the Infirmary. This will be on a temporary basis.

In other business yesterday, Leslie Clark received a letter from John J. McMullen, chairman of the State Roads Commission, in reference to reviewing the existing speed limits on U.S. Route 220 between Bowling Green and Cresaptown.

Mr. McMullen pointed out that George N. Lewis, traffic director of the SRC will schedule a review at the earliest possible time in line with previous commitments which have been made.

Copies of communications were received from Dr. Ton van Strien, deputy state health officer to F. M. Hamilton, L. G. Smith, C. Clifton Loar, William Smith, James W. Beynon, and Mrs. Hazel Gilkey with reference to a nuisance and health hazard drainage condition on Harold Street in LaVale. The communications were ordered filed.

Another communication was received from James Gaughan, of Mt. Savage, requesting the board to remove a double culvert which causes surface water to run onto his property in the Cemetery Road section of that community. Commissioner John J. Rowan said he would investigate the condition.

Food Program Changes Cited

William J. Brugger, supervisor of the donable food program in Maryland, has written the Allegany County Board of Commissioners giving a number of recommendations in reference to the county setup.

He thanked the board members for the time given to him when he and Grant Wiebel, county chairman of the surplus food programe appeared before the group.

Mr. Brugger said there is a possibility of county residents receiving dried whole egg solids which may be available for distribution. He wanted to know if the board wanted the commodity placed on the list of foodstuff. The commissioners indicated they wanted the commodity.

Mr. Brugger also pointed out that he feels there are too many distribution points in the county and steps should be taken to eliminate some.

At the present time there are distribution points in Cumberland, Frostburg, Mt. Savage, Lonaconing, Midland, Barton, Westernport, McCoole, Oldtown and Cresaptown.

Firemen To Burn Wempe Field Grass

The Cumberland Fire Department plans to burn over part of Wempe Field next week, according to Fire Chief Virgil Parker.

He said off-duty men will be used to clear grass and brush off the area. Firemen, he said, will be given time off to compensate for the extra work.

Chief Parker said the department has been able to devote only one day so far to the annual chore.

Firemen try to burn off the large grassed areas twice a year to cut down the number of calls to quench grass fires.

Bishop Powell Visits Here For Confirmation

Rt. Rev. Noble C. Powell, Episcopal bishop of Maryland, will visit two Cumberland churches Sunday morning for confirmation.

Bishop Powell's schedule calls for him to celebrate Holy Communion at Emmanuel Episcopal Church at 8 a. m., go to the 9:30 a. m. service at Holy Cross Episcopal Church for confirmation and return to Emmanuel Church for confirmation at 11 a. m. Just before the last service he will dedicate the Avirett memorial window at Emmanuel.

This will be Bishop Powell's second visit to this city this month. He was here on May 6 for the spring meeting of the Convocation of Cumberland at Emmanuel Church.

Citizens Asked To Help Curb Water Damage

City officials are asking property owners along the Wills Creek flood wall to cooperate in the preservation of the structures which will protect them from devastating floods.

The Engineering Department is writing to owners of buildings on the west side of North Mechanic Street from Baltimore to Market Street urging that gutters and downspouts be put in good condition.

C. R. Nuzum, city engineer, and Roy Maphis, superintendent of the flood maintenance crew, this week inspected the area and found that considerable damage has been done to topsoil and seeding of the easement area from water pouring from the roofs of buildings.

Mr. Nuzum said that when the downspouts are installed, the maintenance crew will place splash boards or brick channels to take the water safely to the grassed ditch which drains the easement area.

Property owners are also being asked to help the city keep the area clean.

The area can be a beauty spot, Mr. Nuzum said, if everybody cooperates.

Cooperation will be needed, it was pointed out, as a foreman and four men share the task of taking care of the $18,100,000 project.

Deal Is Named Cattle Tester

Darrell Deal, of Meyersdale, Pa., Wednesday night was named a cattle tester in the Potomac Valley Dairy Herd Improvement Association and will replace Herbert Shipe, who has accepted employment elsewhere.

The Board of Directors of the DHIA, headed by John T. Mason, met at the office of Joseph M. Steger, county farm agent, and considered Mr. Deal as a successor to Mr. Shipe.

Thursday he visited a number of dairy farms with Robert Apleman, extension dairy specialist of the DHIA, at the University of Maryland.

They contacted dairymen and made an effort to bring their records up to date. Mr. Deal will go to the University in June to take a two-week course in cattle testing.

Sheriff Walks Out Of County Board Meeting

Sheriff Paul Haberlein stalked angrily out of the meeting of the Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday after some misunderstanding about bids for plumbing work to be done at the county jail.

Commissioner John Tucker Mason asked the sheriff if a Pinto plumbing contractor had been asked to make a bid on some work on the jail. Mason said the contractor told him he had not been requested to make a bid.

The sheriff went to the jail and returned to the meeting room with a copy of the bid the contractor made.

Commissioner Mason then telephoned the contractor to ask about the matter.

It developed that there are two firms with similar names in Pinto and even then, an official of the firm about which Mason was inquiring made the bid without the knowledge of the other firm member.

At this point the sheriff asked Mason: "Why wouldn't you take my word for it?"

"I won't come to any more meetings unless I'm called in," the sheriff declared. "Every time I come over here a surly remark is made," he added. At this point he was looking at Mason. The commissioner stated that he wasn't questioning the sheriff's word, but only wanted to ascertain the facts as the contractor had asked him about it.

There was also a case of confusion when the bids of two firms were opened for air conditioners in the tax collector's office at the Court House.

The commissioners heard the bids and then remarked that they had not requested them, and added it is their practice to get at least three bids. It developed that William B. Orndorff, tax collector, had asked for quotations as it will be necessary to see if his budget can assume the cost of the devices.

Then the question of air conditioners for the sheriff's office was mentioned and the commissioners said they had thought that the devices for both offices would be bought at once and a saving made.

Leslie Clark, attorney to the board, said the bids of the Sterling Electric Company and Cumberland Electric Company had been "exposed" through no fault of the two firms and they should be the only ones considered for the tax collector's office work.

The commissioners then stated that in the future all requests for the bids (those under $1,000) must be authorized by the board and at least three bids asked. The commissioners said that the entire matter had resulted from a misunderstanding about the situation.

Bids will be requested for the sheriff's office air conditioning. Attorney Clark said that all requests for bids should be first authorized by the board through the secretary, James G. Stevenson.

County Board And Police Discuss Speed Law Plans

A discussion of a program for instituting a system of speed laws for the various county roads was held yesterday at the meeting of the Allegany County Board of Commissioners.

A law passed at the last session of the General Assembly provides for the commissioners to inaugurate such a program. Lt. W. E. O'Hara, commander of the LaVale Barracks of the State Police, and Sheriff Haberlein were at the board meeting to outline the enforcement of such a plan.

Sheriff Haberlein said that after the roads are marked with speed signs and a program adopted, he will start a patrol system with his deputies handling not only speed violations, but also the illegal dumping of trash.

Lt. O'Hara said that troopers could patrol county roads and that traffic violators would be tried on state charges.

Leslie Clark attorney to the board, read a copy of the new law and said the commissioners wanted Lt. O'Hara and Sheriff Haberlein to work out a joint program based on a survey to be made.

Commissioner John J. Rowan also brought up the matter of traffic cases which magistrates in outlying areas such as Flintstone, Cresaptown and Oldtown could try at night. This would lessen the burden on the magistrates in the Trial Magistrates Court in Cumberland.

Rowan explained that starting June 1 the Trial Magistrates Court will handle civil cases in which up to $500 is involved. The maximum had beer $300. This will result in a heavier volume of such cases and the additional traffic cases would make the caseload exceptionally heavy.

Lt. O'Hara told the commissioners that he has instructed his troopers that wherever possible cases should be handled by the magistrate nearest to the place where the violations occurred.

City To Ban Salesmen On Sidewalks

The city moved to rid Cumberland streets of sidewalk salesmen when a blind man was picked up Thursday for selling pencils on Baltimore Street without a license.

City Attorney William R. Carscaden, who prosecuted the case yesterday in Police Court, said it was not the intent of the city to persecute afflicted persons, but that complaints had been received from blind people who allege such sidewalk salesmen are defeating state and county programs designed to help the afflicted.

Under questioning, the blind man said he had approached former Police Chief R. Emmett Flynn for a permit, but had been informed such work required a license from the Mayor and Council.

Trial Magistrate F. Allan Weatherholt inquired as to whether such action was taken, with the man explaining that he had sent in a written request on April 3, with the Council deferring action on the request.

The blind salesman contended he was not violating any city ordinance since he was not setting up a business in the true sense of the word. He explained that he kept a number of pencils in his hat on his lap for passersby who were free to take one and drop a contribution in a cup he held.

Carscaden stressed that he felt sorry for any blind person, but pointed out that state programs are available for such afflicted people and to allow such sales on city streets would be to defeat the aims of the welfare organizations.

The blind salesman said he had formerly been employed at the Maryland Workshop for the Blind here, but felt that he could make more money by the street sales.

Magistrate Weatherholt suspended sentence on the blind salesman, the city ordinance stipulates that the fine can range from $5 to $100, after being informed by Carscaden that the constitutionality of the ordinance was not being contested, and that the man had pleaded guilty of violating the law after being advised against the sidewalk sales by city officials.

Constitution Park Being Prepared For Opening

Beautiful Constitution Park, preparing for the official opening Memorial Day, May 30, already has welcomed scores of visitors this spring.

Robert R. Golden, superintendent, said many have taken advantage of the warmer days to picnic in the park, walk its green wooded acres or just relax. Play equipment has been in operation for children several weeks and the swings, merry-go-round, sliding boards and see-saws have been getting a generous spring workout.

Most of the preparation work has been concentrated in Grove 4, Golden said, although a general clean-up, paint-up has been underway in the entire area.

Two major projects are well underway, according to Street Commissioner John J. Long under whose department jurisdiction of the park falls. They are the Little League baseball field on the site of the old ball diamond and construction of tennis courts in a hollow just beyond the entrance to the parking area.

Both the ballfield and court area have been graded and it is hoped, weather permitting, to have both in operation about the first of June.

Golden and park employes have been getting permanent installations at the park in shape for the thousands of visitors expected during the summer months. Benches, tables, fireplaces have been cleaned and renovated. In Grove 4 there is a 30-foot permanent concrete table with connected bleacher-type seats for larger picnic parties.

A shortage of help has slowed the general maintenance procedure although the park will be in good shape for the opening day Saturday a week, Golden said.

Commissioner Long and Golden have worked out a plan to do away with most of the signs which appear at various spots in the park and replacing them with one large, rustic-type sign at the entrance to each grove.

Commissioners Appoint Three For Nurse Duty

Three local and area women were appointed to jobs in Allegany County institutions yesterday morning during a meeting of the Board of Commissioners.

Mrs. Anna Counihan, of 472 Waverly Terrace, was appointed practical nurse on a probationary basis at the County Infirmary.

Pansy Leona Oster, 332 Bedford Street, also was appointed a practical nurse at the Infirmary. This will be on a temporary basis.

In other business yesterday, Leslie Clark received a letter from John J. McMullen, chairman of the State Roads Commission, in reference to reviewing the existing speed limits on U.S. Route 220 between Bowling Green and Cresaptown.

Mr. McMullen pointed out that George N. Lewis, traffic director of the SRC will schedule a review at the earliest possible time in line with previous commitments which have been made.

Copies of communications were received from Dr. Ton van Strien, deputy state health officer to F. M. Hamilton, L. G. Smith, C. Clifton Loar, William Smith, James W. Beynon, and Mrs. Hazel Gilkey with reference to a nuisance and health hazard drainage condition on Harold Street in LaVale. The communications were ordered filed.

Another communication was received from James Gaughan, of Mt. Savage, requesting the board to remove a double culvert which causes surface water to run onto his property in the Cemetery Road section of that community. Commissioner John J. Rowan said he would investigate the condition.

Food Program Changes Cited

William J. Brugger, supervisor of the donable food program in Maryland, has written the Allegany County Board of Commissioners giving a number of recommendations in reference to the county setup.

He thanked the board members for the time given to him when he and Grant Wiebel, county chairman of the surplus food programe appeared before the group.

Mr. Brugger said there is a possibility of county residents receiving dried whole egg solids which may be available for distribution. He wanted to know if the board wanted the commodity placed on the list of foodstuff. The commissioners indicated they wanted the commodity.

Mr. Brugger also pointed out that he feels there are too many distribution points in the county and steps should be taken to eliminate some.

At the present time there are distribution points in Cumberland, Frostburg, Mt. Savage, Lonaconing, Midland, Barton, Westernport, McCoole, Oldtown and Cresaptown.

Firemen To Burn Wempe Field Grass

The Cumberland Fire Department plans to burn over part of Wempe Field next week, according to Fire Chief Virgil Parker.

He said off-duty men will be used to clear grass and brush off the area. Firemen, he said, will be given time off to compensate for the extra work.

Chief Parker said the department has been able to devote only one day so far to the annual chore.

Firemen try to burn off the large grassed areas twice a year to cut down the number of calls to quench grass fires.

Bishop Powell Visits Here For Confirmation

Rt. Rev. Noble C. Powell, Episcopal bishop of Maryland, will visit two Cumberland churches Sunday morning for confirmation.

Bishop Powell's schedule calls for him to celebrate Holy Communion at Emmanuel Episcopal Church at 8 a. m., go to the 9:30 a. m. service at Holy Cross Episcopal Church for confirmation and return to Emmanuel Church for confirmation at 11 a. m. Just before the last service he will dedicate the Avirett memorial window at Emmanuel.

This will be Bishop Powell's second visit to this city this month. He was here on May 6 for the spring meeting of the Convocation of Cumberland at Emmanuel Church.

Citizens Asked To Help Curb Water Damage

City officials are asking property owners along the Wills Creek flood wall to cooperate in the preservation of the structures which will protect them from devastating floods.

The Engineering Department is writing to owners of buildings on the west side of North Mechanic Street from Baltimore to Market Street urging that gutters and downspouts be put in good condition.

C. R. Nuzum, city engineer, and Roy Maphis, superintendent of the flood maintenance crew, this week inspected the area and found that considerable damage has been done to topsoil and seeding of the easement area from water pouring from the roofs of buildings.

Mr. Nuzum said that when the downspouts are installed, the maintenance crew will place splash boards or brick channels to take the water safely to the grassed ditch which drains the easement area.

Property owners are also being asked to help the city keep the area clean.

The area can be a beauty spot, Mr. Nuzum said, if everybody cooperates.

Cooperation will be needed, it was pointed out, as a foreman and four men share the task of taking care of the $18,100,000 project.

Deal Is Named Cattle Tester

Darrell Deal, of Meyersdale, Pa., Wednesday night was named a cattle tester in the Potomac Valley Dairy Herd Improvement Association and will replace Herbert Shipe, who has accepted employment elsewhere.

The Board of Directors of the DHIA, headed by John T. Mason, met at the office of Joseph M. Steger, county farm agent, and considered Mr. Deal as a successor to Mr. Shipe.

Thursday he visited a number of dairy farms with Robert Apleman, extension dairy specialist of the DHIA, at the University of Maryland.

They contacted dairymen and made an effort to bring their records up to date. Mr. Deal will go to the University in June to take a two-week course in cattle testing.

Song Of Rails Soon Will Be Gone

One more particle of evidence that progress is without sentiment comes from the sly cult of railroaders which has practically succeeded in substituting the cold-blooded nonentity which is the diesel for the romantic majesty of the steam-puffer of yesterday. Not content with the successful culmination of this treacherous stratagem, railroad evolutionists are now concentrating on elimination of the very sound of the rail.

Passengers of the future will not know the caressing lull produced by the clickety clack of the rails; they will not experience the rhythmic sound of cross-country motion. Railroads in a few years will be silent. There will be nothing but an almost imperceptible swaying motion (another progressive result) to remind one he is not sitting in his own living room. Fulbright On Russia

Whereas the Kremlin is the headquarters of a secular universal religious force to which many refer as an ideology, it is also the capital of a universal state which is still an expanding empire.

Senator Fulbright, speaking at Columbia University in a more-than-usual intelligent statement of the relations between the United States and Russia, said:

". . . Khrushchev has bluntly and forthrightly declared economic war on us. We discount at our peril his seriousness of purpose and his ability to carry it out.

"Indeed, in my judgment one of the most difficult problems we face is how to meet Soviet trade practices. For in a growing line of products, the Soviets are reaching a point where they can disrupt world markets and world trade patterns almost at will. This has happened already with tin, aluminum, and benzine. And the list is growing, while the practice itself finds the decentralized, private trading economies of the West poorly equipped to deal with this kind of competition from the Soviet Union."

This is a correct statement of the situation and one to which I have been calling attention for several years to no avail.

Soviet Russia has managed to establish the fact that goods can be produced by socialistic as well as by capitalistic methods; by slave labor as well as by free labor; by government-owned as well as privately-owned industries.

The question is, how does a free society meet this competition? Senator Fulbright, in this speech, said:

"Frankly, I do not know how to meet Soviet economic warfare. But I do know that we must start at once to think about the problem in a systematic way . . ."

Let us explore the possibilities of meeting our problem which is that Soviet Russia, disregarding price and profit, absorbing all costs in the tax structure, can flood world markets, including our own, with goods until unemployment and inflation destroy the economic basis for life in the capitalist countries.

Fulbright touches, in this speech, on one of the salient difficulties in our situation, but he does not quite answer his own problem. He said:

"I also know that the Soviet economic warfare cannot be met so long as it is our national policy to pay a one-fifth higher price for generators to be used in an Arkansas dam, merely to give the order to a Philadelphia firm instead of to one in England. If American business cannot compete even with British business, which works in approximately the same kind of economic framework, how can we ever expect to compete with Russian business, which operates as a political arm of the state?"

There is an answer to that. It is an answer which will not be popular in the United States or Great Britain or in Canada at this moment. But it is an answer which sooner or later will have to be accepted because there is no other. The answer is already being given in an incomplete and hardly satisfactory form in the European Common Market which includes only six countries. The day when the British Commonwealth and the United States are added to the Common Market—that is, when it becomes a Western Common Market, we shall have the economic strength and the competitive power to meet any dumping operation of Soviet Russia.

In this connection, these figures are interesting:

In 1936, the United States produced 53,499,999 tons of steel which was 68.4 per cent of capacity. In that same year, the total world production was 133,080,172 tons. In 1958, the United States produced 85,254,885 tons of steel which was 60.6 per cent of capacity; the entire world produced 296,222,190 tons, which was 79.5 per cent of capacity. In 1936, the United States imported 268,810 tons of steel; in 1958, the United States imported 1,702,819 tons of steel. It is to be noted that in 1958, more than half of the barbed wire, more than 32 per cent of the nails and more than 20 per cent of steel fence came from abroad. And during the first quarter of 1959, for the first time, imports of steel mill products into the United States exceeded exports.

An economic union of the Western nations, in some form, based perhaps on a managed gold currency, may be the only answer to this problem.

Hungarians Fill Church For "Nelson-Mass"

By Joseph Alsop

BUDAPEST, Hungary

In the Coronation Church, the parish church of the ancient fortress of Buda that still towers above Budapest, they sang Haydn's "Nelson-Mass" last Sunday.

It is called the Nelson-Mass, the legend runs, because Nelson's victory at Aboukir Bay is celebrated by the blood-tingling flourish of trumpets introducing the Benedictus. What with the trumpets and the fiddles and the superb Italinate choir, it must be admitted that the Nelson-Mass did not sound like religious music to the untutored American ear.

Yet the huge old church was filled as only Polish and Hungarian churches are filled nowadays. Long before the mass began, every seat was taken. In the aisles and entrance, latecomers young and old, workers and peasants and artisans, kneeled or stood through the long service. Even when Haydn's 18th century imagination sent the fiddles and sopranos on their wildest flights, one felt the faith and ferver. But the great outpouring of passion came at the close, when the whole crowded congregation joined in the Hungarian anthem, the hymn of the Magyar people, which Hungarians have sung together for more than a century.

The point about this mass at the Coronation Church is quite simple. In brief, this is all that the great majority of the Hungarian people really believe in any longer. The system they live under, the government that rules over them, the future that the government promises, are all duly accepted. But they do not command belief or hope.

It is a curious fact, yet it really seems to be a fact, that belief and hope were stronger when the lot of the Hungarian people was far more terrible, in the iron times of Rakosi and Stalin. Precisely because power was displayed with naked ruthlessness, precisely because of the cruelty of the grim policies pursued, they seem to have inspired a curious masochistic mystique, at least in certain sectors of the youth and the intelligentsia. It was the same in Poland, where the most rigidly Stalinist intellectuals are now the most strenuous "revisionists."

This mystique collapsed when Khrushchev broke the Stalin-image in his famous speech, with consequences in Hungary that the whole world remembers. Nothing has replaced the lost mystique, although the blood that was shed was not shed altogether in vain if you apply the common economic tests of our age.

Economically, the Hungarian people are substantially better off under Kadar than they were under Rakosi and somewhat better off than under Imre Nagy. The improvement began even before the great explosion here. The trading system by which Stalin's Russia levied a heavy tribute in Hungary was abandoned soon after the old tyrant's death, for instance.

Now, moreover, the rate of state investment is far more bearable. The investment plan is no longer insanely overbalanced in favor of an artificial ultra-heavy industry. Ordinary consumer's goods are being produced in reasonable quantities. Above all, the tremendous burden of defense expenditure that Hungary was formerly required to carry has now been reduced by about four-fifths for obvious political reasons.

All these changes mean, in effect, that the state is taking less for itself and giving more to the people. This city, with its spectacular situation astride the Danube and all its possibilities of beauty, is still sadly gray and drab. But there are goods in the shops. The people have decent shoes and decent clothes. Except for the old and the tragic survivors of the former ruling class, no one goes hungry.

The government's conscious effort to improve the conditions of life in Hungary is the direct result of the defeated revolution. "Something must be done," they said in the Kremlin, and this was what was done. There is no solid evidence, either, that the renewed drive to collectivize Hungarian agriculture means a change in policy.

The propaganda about the new rural collectives being entirely voluntary is—propaganda. But brute force has not been used in the old way. There are many practical reasons why small plot peasant farming is undesirable in Hungary, which has always been farmed in large estates. The state is paying heavily to make the new collectives succeed. For these reasons, the re-collectivization does not seem to foreshadow another general plunge into misery in the Stalinist manner.

All in all, three years after the young boys fought the Soviet tanks from street to street, life in Hungary goes on with most of the outward appearances of normal life in other countries. The trouble is under the surface. The trouble, in fact, is the total absence of belief. Without commanding a certain measure of belief, at least among its own cadres, no government can put down permanent roots. That is Janos Kadar's problem—which is directly linked to the Berlin crisis and the current meeting at Geneva to talk about Berlin.

Inside Washington

By Henry Cathcart

One area where the President is winning far greater cooperation than he expected is foreign affairs. The shock of John Foster Dulles' illness at a critical time in world affairs largely accounts for this cooperation.

Apparently, the Democratic leadership on Capitol Hill is unwilling to take any public blame which might stem from political actions in this field. There is an obvious desire on the part of both political parties to achieve as much unity in foreign affairs as is possible, not only for domestic political reasons, but to impress the Communist adversaries with the fact that the United States is not split over the question of how to deal with Red threats over such issues as Berlin, a united Germany, preservation of the Middle East status quo, and other world tender spots.

In any event, Christian A. Herter, the new Secretary of State, is receiving near-unanimous support from the Democrats in Congress. This situation probably will continue through the present session.

American Tel And Tel Report Pried Loose By Congressmen

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — For several weeks there's been a hush-hush effort inside the House Judiciary Committee to pigeonhole a dynamite-laden report on the world's biggest utility, American Telephone and Telegraph. Three Republican Congressmen and one Democrat have been sitting on the report. They didn't say so in so many words, but it was obvious from their actions that most of them didn't want the report on American Tel and Tel wire-pulling to get to the general public.

The three Republicans who sat on the report are: William McCulloch of Ohio, William E. Miller of New York, a well-known friend of the public utilities, and George Meader of Michigan. Meader, however, has only been a member of the committee this year, was not familiar with the hearings of last year, and said he needed time to study the voluminous records.

The one Democrat is: Bryon Rogers of Denver.

Finally chairman Manny Celler of Brooklyn went to Rogers and urged him to vote with his fellow Democrats in getting the report to the public. He pointed out that American Tel and Tel, with its subsidiary Western Electric, had been guilty of flagrant antitrust violation and had used all sorts of wire-pulling to get their case, which was brought by the Democrats, settled inside the Justice Department by the Republicans.

At first Rogers wouldn't budge. Finally Celler got tough.

"You're already in trouble back in Denver with these people on your payroll who don't seem to be doing much work," Celler warned. "I wouldn't advise you to get in wrong any further."

Finally Celler got his report released. Manny is guarding its contents as if it contained the secrets of the hydrogen bomb. However, this column can reveal that it is a 350-page document which takes the hide off American Tel and Tel, its subsidiary Western Electric, Attorney General Brownell, T. Brooke Price, counsel for A. T. and T., together with Bayard E. Pope, president of the Marine Midland Corporation of New York, for flagrant lobbying and antitrust fixing.

The report tells of secret meetings between Brownell (then Attorney General), Pope and Price in the Statler Hotel in Washington and the Greenbrier Hotel in White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. Pope is a member of the executive committee of the New York Telephone Company, also a director of the Statler Hotels. Senator Keating, New York Republican, a good friend of New York's Congressman Miller who sat on the report, is a director of one of Pope's Midland banks. As a result of the secret confabs, the Justice Department dropped its case against Western Electric and A. T. and T. with a milk-and-water consent decree.

The man who negotiated the consent decree for Brownell was Edward A. Foote, the Justice Department attorney who later was fired for having a conflict of interest—namely, buying stock in Warren Petroleum at the time his office was passing on its merger with Gulf Oil.

Note—A. T. and T. stock will split three for one next month in a record-breaking dividend which when announced last winter sent its stock up $23 a share in one day.

Wealthiest Senator

Big Bob Kerr, the richest man on Capitol Hill (his personal fortune is rated at a cool $35,000,000), is having the seat of his pants scorched by a grass-roots rebellion in Oklahoma. Inside word is that the Sooner State's attractive 32-year-old Governor, Howard Edmondson, or his brother, Rep. Ed Edmondson, will tackle Senator Kerr next year.

Reason for the revolt is that Kerr, whose booming voice keynoted the 1944 Democratic convention, is lining up with the GOP and big business on key votes. The Senator makes no bones of the fact that his vote is in the vest pocket of Secretary of the Treasury Robert Anderson or Ike's Budget Director, Maurice Stans.

Kerr kicked the traces and voted with Republicans in the Finance Committee on a jobless pay bill that Secretary Anderson turned thumbs down on. Kerr's vote also assures the Eisenhower administration that the Democrats won't be able to push through any tax reform. For he is sure to line up with Harry Byrd of Virginia and the Republicans to block any changes.

And when Democrat leaders talked to Kerr about voting against confirmation of Lewis Strauss for Secretary of Commerce, he blandly drawled, "I'd like to help you boys, but Bob Anderson asked me to vote for Strauss, and I told him I would. You know Bob and Maurice Stans have been mighty good to me."

Kerr's actions are no surprise to those who have watched him hustling furiously backstage for a multi-million-dollar pork-barrel project which would benefit the booming Kerr-McGee Company. This project would open up the Arkansas River to navigation from the Mississippi to Tulsa. Kerr-McGee has been quietly buying up thousands of acres of land in LeFlore County, Oklahoma, which borders on the Arkansas River project, in anticipation of a giant industrial boom. The Senator himself is building a half-million-dollar mansion in this area.

Blistering Supreme Court

An attack on the U. S. Supreme Court that would have made a front-page sizzler was finally deleted from a House Appropriations Committee report the other day after Congressman John Shelley, California Democrat, raised cain behind closed doors.

Shelley threatened to write a blistering minority report of his own if Democratic Rep. George Andrews of Alabama, chairman of a subcommittee on General Government Matters, and Republican Congressman John Taber of New York didn't tone down the anti-Court diatribe.

The torrid document was aimed at the Court's refusal to uphold a 1953 order by the Subversive Activities Control Board requiring the registration of the Communist party and other subversive groups under the McCarran Internal Security act.

"I won't go along with such an inflammatory attack on the Supreme Court," Shelley told his committee colleagues. "It is both improper and irresponsible. We on this committee are supposed to deal with dollars, not personal opinions on questions of law as determined by the judicial branch of our government."

After listening to Shelley's protest, Chairman Andrews conceded that the criticism of the Supreme Court was "too severe" and ordered the committee's staff to change the language.

U. S. Losing Gold

By Leslie Gould

NEW YORK

The United States has been losing gold — about $290 million this year on top of $2¼ billion last year.

There is nothing alarming about this, but it has stirred renewed pressure and propaganda from London — principally — and certain speculative circles here for the U. S. Treasury to boost its gold buying price.

Russia is also in the act. Anastas Mikoyan as far back as last August was urging the same action.

The present gold buying price is $35 an ounce, established in 1934 by President Roosevelt after the advent of the New Deal. The previous price had been $20.67 an ounce.

The present outflow is due chiefly to the approaching deadline for other nations to increase their gold deposits with the International Monetary Fund. The Fund has increased the quotas for gold deposits, and the U. S. gold stocks are being drawn on to meet this call.

U. S. gold reserves are now down to $20 billion 244 million. This is the lowest they have been since 1945, when they stood at $20 billion 083 million. They reached $24 billion 427 million in 1949.

There was a big loss of gold by the U. S. in 1950 — about $2¾ billions. In 1953, a loss of $1 billion 161 million and last year $2 billion 275 million.

The continued inflation and unbalanced federal budgets have played a minor role in this, but not to the extent the advocates of a higher gold buying price would have you believe.

The dollar in relation to the British pound probably is overvalued. To put it another way, the British pound is undervalued at $2.82. This is because Britain has been doing a better job of controlling inflation and balancing its budget.

Whether this is permanent or just a temporary condition depends on what happens in the coming British elections. If the Labor Party gets back in power, spending again will be the order of the day in Britain.

Confidence in the pound will suffer if that happens. Just as confidence in the dollar has been harmed by the continued inflation here and the failure of the Eisenhower Administration to make any substantial reductions in spending.

It is interesting, and maybe significant, that London, South Africa and Moscow should be calling for a higher U. S. Treasury buying price for gold. South Africa's position is understandable — being the world's largest gold producer. The same for Russia as the world's second largest gold producer. But not so the position of such an outstanding financier as Sir Jeremy Raisman, deputy chairman of London's Lloyds Bank.

Sir Jeremy thinks the U. S. Treasury should double the gold buying price — $70 an ounce instead of the present $35. He must have had his tongue in cheek when he said as to American contentions this would be a devaluation of the dollar:

"We do not regard it that way. We regard it as a revaluation of gold in all currencies. Depreciation of the dollar is the last thing we want to see."

That's for the birds.

Mikoyan, who is director of the Russian economic policy, says the difference between the present "artificially established price" and the price that should exist amounts to the tribute paid by the countries that sell gold to the United States.

Russia has been selling around $250 million in gold in each of the last two years. Doubling the U. S. gold buying price would raise the floor the American Government has for years been maintaining under the world gold market. Instead of getting a quarter of a billion in badly needed American dollars, the Russians would get half a billion a year for financing their world wide subversion.

Raising the gold buying price would be great for everyone — including the Russians — but not for the United States.

Why Are Babies Born At Such Odd Hours?

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Births occur at random intervals, dictated by the biological processes and the prospective mother. But it is difficult to convince the wife of a physician who practices obstetrics that most babies are not born at night, on holidays or week-ends, or during the vacation season of the year.

That there is some basis for this belief is shown by the results of a study made of the hour, day, and month of 38,668 deliveries in four Oklahoma City hospitals. Ten per cent more babies arrived at night than during the day and the favorite hour was between 3 and 4 a. m. The delivery rooms were least busy during the afternoon, with the lowest incidence at 3 p. m.

Business began to pick up in the hospitals between 5 and 8 in the evening and things were humming by midnight. Night work leaves the physician a bit bleary-eyed the next morning but it has one consoling feature: He is reasonably certain of conducting his afternoon office hours without competing with the stork.

Babies are born any day of the week but the pet day in Oklahoma City was Tuesday. August was the busiest month and April the slowest.

Dr. T. C. Points, who conducted the survey, had a reasonable explanation for the greater incidence of births in late summer and early autumn. Fertility of ova and sperm is lowest in tropical climates and highest in temperate environments. August, September, and October newborns were conceived in November, December, or January, the coldest months in Oklahoma.

Will these statistics be changed by the increasing popularity of air conditioning? Your guess is as good as mine but the results of any study along this line are more interesting than practical. Babies will continue to be born at all hours of the day and night, from Sunday thru Saturday, and from January thru December.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

INDIGESTION

M. R. writes: Since a heart attack several months ago I have been troubled with belching on awakening in the morning. Is this part of the heart condition?

REPLY

Many persons with heart trouble have indigestion, which may or may not be related to the old ticker. In some instances it stems from the heart medication; in others it is associated with anxiety. Gall bladder disease may be responsible. Burping angina is the term used by some physicians to describe this condition, especially when belching brings relief. Why not bring this symptom to your physician's attention?

NUCLEUS OF STONE

R. T. writes: How does a gallstone start?

REPLY

The nucleus of a stone is formed when bile chemicals crystallize and stick or mat together; bacteria also join the fun. As more and more crystals adhere to this nucleus, it enlarges. Unless the stone passes, it grows gradually until it is too large to escape.

INSULIN HELPS

G. T. writes: I have had diabetes for 10 years that I know about. Up until a year ago I could control the sugar by diet, but at that time my doctor thought it advisable for me to take insulin. Will any ill effects follow the use of insulin?

REPLY

No. Furthermore, you might have ill effects if you didn't take insulin.

OPERATION AT 65

N. B. writes: Can a healthy man of 65 safely undergo a hernia operation?

REPLY

Yes.

LICHEN PLANUS

D. L. writes: I have lichen planus but the pills the doctor gave me are not doing much good, as the eruption seems to be spreading. Do you think there is any cure for this disease?

REPLY

Keep your fingers crossed. There is no specific remedy for this skin disorder. It may last for months or years and comes and goes for no apparent reason. Spontaneous improvement occurs often. Sometimes a vacation results in temporary or even permanent cure.

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

Biggest suckers for worthless stocks and crackbrain inventions are doctors and dentists, according to Wall Street authorities. Other professional men are not far behind.

Mark Twain was a prize sitting duck for swindlers, but he finally promised his wife he had learned his lesson, and henceforth would buy nothing riskier than a short term government bond. When a very earnest, slender man came along with a strange contraption under his arm, and offered a substantial share in his invention for just $1,000, Twain refused abruptly. "I've been burned too often," he explained.

As the disappointed inventor was leaving, Twain asked, "What did you say your name was?" "Bell," answered the inventor sadly. "Alexander Graham Bell."

Rueful admission of long-suffering wife of famous Hollywood star: "I always can tell when my husband's lying. It's whenever his lips are moving."

Song Of Rails Soon Will Be Gone

One more particle of evidence that progress is without sentiment comes from the sly cult of railroaders which has practically succeeded in substituting the cold-blooded nonentity which is the diesel for the romantic majesty of the steam-puffer of yesterday. Not content with the successful culmination of this treacherous stratagem, railroad evolutionists are now concentrating on elimination of the very sound of the rail.

Passengers of the future will not know the caressing lull produced by the clickety clack of the rails; they will not experience the rhythmic sound of cross-country motion. Railroads in a few years will be silent. There will be nothing but an almost imperceptible swaying motion (another progressive result) to remind one he is not sitting in his own living room. Railroading will no longer be an experience — it will be simply a means of transportation.

Already in parts of the U. S. trackmen are tearing up the old 39-foot rails and replacing them with 1800-footers. Safe and more economical, they say, are these welded rails. No more conversing with one's imagination as the singing rails conjure the image of unknown expectations.

Business practicalities are forcing many changes in traditions. There is no room for romanticism in businesses caught between inflation and high taxes. All character must be melted down in order that the skeleton may survive.

Casey Jones and the thousands of other poetic and prose anecdotes of the railroad have enriched American folklore much more than all but a few other callings. Such tales can now never be repeated to the full savor of their origins, and there will be no more to add to them.

Finally Celler got his report released. Manny is guarding its contents as if it contained the secrets of the hydrogen bomb. However, this column can reveal that it is a 350-page document which takes the hide off American Tel and Tel, its subsidiary Western Electric, Attorney General Brownell, T. Brooke Price, counsel for A. T. and T., together with Bayard E. Pope, president of the Marine Midland Corporation of New York, for flagrant lobbying and antitrust fixing.

The report tells of secret meetings between Brownell (then Attorney General), Pope and Price in the Statler Hotel in Washington and the Greenbrier Hotel in White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. Pope is a member of the executive committee of the New York Telephone Company, also a director of the Statler Hotels. Senator Keating, New York Republican, a good friend of New York's Congressman Miller who sat on the report, is a director of one of Pope's Midland banks. As a result of the secret confabs, the Justice Department dropped its case against Western Electric and A. T. and T. with a milk-and-water consent decree.

The man who negotiated the consent decree for Brownell was Edward A. Foote, the Justice Department attorney who later was fired for having a conflict of interest—namely, buying stock in Warren Petroleum at the time his office was passing on its merger with Gulf Oil.

Note—A. T. and T. stock will split three for one next month in a record-breaking dividend which when announced last winter sent its stock up $23 a share in one day.

Wealthiest Senator

Big Bob Kerr, the richest man on Capitol Hill (his personal fortune is rated at a cool $35,000,000), is having the seat of his pants scorched by a grass-roots rebellion in Oklahoma. Inside word is that the Sooner State's attractive 32-year-old Governor, Howard Edmondson, or his brother, Rep. Ed Edmondson, will tackle Senator Kerr next year.

Reason for the revolt is that Kerr, whose booming voice keynoted the 1944 Democratic convention, is lining up with the GOP and big business on key votes. The Senator makes no bones of the fact that his vote is in the vest pocket of Secretary of the Treasury Robert Anderson or Ike's Budget Director, Maurice Stans.

Kerr kicked the traces and voted with Republicans in the Finance Committee on a jobless pay bill that Secretary Anderson turned thumbs down on. Kerr's vote also assures the Eisenhower administration that the Democrats won't be able to push through any tax reform. For he is sure to line up with Harry Byrd of Virginia and the Republicans to block any changes.

And when Democrat leaders talked to Kerr about voting against confirmation of Lewis Strauss for Secretary of Commerce, he blandly drawled, "I'd like to help you boys, but Bob Anderson asked me to vote for Strauss, and I told him I would. You know Bob and Maurice Stans have been mighty good to me."

Kerr's actions are no surprise to those who have watched him hustling furiously backstage for a multi-million-dollar pork-barrel project which would benefit the booming Kerr-McGee Company. This project would open up the Arkansas River to navigation from the Mississippi to Tulsa. Kerr-McGee has been quietly buying up thousands of acres of land in LeFlore County, Oklahoma, which borders on the Arkansas River project, in anticipation of a giant industrial boom. The Senator himself is building a half-million-dollar mansion in this area.

Blistering Supreme Court

An attack on the U. S. Supreme Court that would have made a front-page sizzler was finally deleted from a House Appropriations Committee report the other day after Congressman John Shelley, California Democrat, raised cain behind closed doors.

Shelley threatened to write a blistering minority report of his own if Democratic Rep. George Andrews of Alabama, chairman of a subcommittee on General Government Matters, and Republican Congressman John Taber of New York didn't tone down the anti-Court diatribe.

The torrid document was aimed at the Court's refusal to uphold a 1953 order by the Subversive Activities Control Board requiring the registration of the Communist party and other subversive groups under the McCarran Internal Security act.

"I won't go along with such an inflammatory attack on the Supreme Court," Shelley told his committee colleagues. "It is both improper and irresponsible. We on this committee are supposed to deal with dollars, not personal opinions on questions of law as determined by the judicial branch of our government."

After listening to Shelley's protest, Chairman Andrews conceded that the criticism of the Supreme Court was "too severe" and ordered the committee's staff to change the language.

Hungarians Fill Church For "Nelson-Mass"

By Joseph Alsop

BUDAPEST, Hungary

In the Coronation Church, the parish church of the ancient fortress of Buda that still towers above Budapest, they sang Haydn's "Nelson-Mass" last Sunday.

It is called the Nelson-Mass, the legend runs, because Nelson's victory at Aboukir Bay is celebrated by the blood-tingling flourish of trumpets introducing the Benedictus. What with the trumpets and the fiddles and the superb Italinate choir, it must be admitted that the Nelson-Mass did not sound like religious music to the untutored American ear.

Yet the huge old church was filled as only Polish and Hungarian churches are filled nowadays. Long before the mass began, every seat was taken. In the aisles and entrance, latecomers young and old, workers and peasants and artisans, kneeled or stood through the long service. Even when Haydn's 18th century imagination sent the fiddles and sopranos on their wildest flights, one felt the faith and ferver. But the great outpouring of passion came at the close, when the whole crowded congregation joined in the Hungarian anthem, the hymn of the Magyar people, which Hungarians have sung together for more than a century.

The point about this mass at the Coronation Church is quite simple. In brief, this is all that the great majority of the Hungarian people really believe in any longer. The system they live under, the government that rules over them, the future that the government promises, are all duly accepted. But they do not command belief or hope.

It is a curious fact, yet it really seems to be a fact, that belief and hope were stronger when the lot of the Hungarian people was far more terrible, in the iron times of Rakosi and Stalin. Precisely because power was displayed with naked ruthlessness, precisely because of the cruelty of the grim policies pursued, they seem to have inspired a curious masochistic mystique, at least in certain sectors of the youth and the intelligentsia. It was the same in Poland, where the most rigidly Stalinist intellectuals are now the most strenuous "revisionists."

This mystique collapsed when Khrushchev broke the Stalin-image in his famous speech, with consequences in Hungary that the whole world remembers. Nothing has replaced the lost mystique, although the blood that was shed was not shed altogether in vain if you apply the common economic tests of our age.

Economically, the Hungarian people are substantially better off under Kadar than they were under Rakosi and somewhat better off than under Imre Nagy. The improvement began even before the great explosion here. The trading system by which Stalin's Russia levied a heavy tribute in Hungary was abandoned soon after the old tyrant's death, for instance.

Now, moreover, the rate of state investment is far more bearable. The investment plan is no longer insanely overbalanced in favor of an artificial ultra-heavy industry. Ordinary consumer's goods are being produced in reasonable quantities. Above all, the tremendous burden of defense expenditure that Hungary was formerly required to carry has now been reduced by about four-fifths for obvious political reasons.

All these changes mean, in effect, that the state is taking less for itself and giving more to the people. This city, with its spectacular situation astride the Danube and all its possibilities of beauty, is still sadly gray and drab. But there are goods in the shops. The people have decent shoes and decent clothes. Except for the old and the tragic survivors of the former ruling class, no one goes hungry.

The government's conscious effort to improve the conditions of life in Hungary is the direct result of the defeated revolution. "Something must be done," they said in the Kremlin, and this was what was done. There is no solid evidence, either, that the renewed drive to collectivize Hungarian agriculture means a change in policy.

The propaganda about the new rural collectives being entirely voluntary is—propaganda. But brute force has not been used in the old way. There are many practical reasons why small plot peasant farming is undesirable in Hungary, which has always been farmed in large estates. The state is paying heavily to make the new collectives succeed. For these reasons, the re-collectivization does not seem to foreshadow another general plunge into misery in the Stalinist manner.

All in all, three years after the young boys fought the Soviet tanks from street to street, life in Hungary goes on with most of the outward appearances of normal life in other countries. The trouble is under the surface. The trouble, in fact, is the total absence of belief. Without commanding a certain measure of belief, at least among its own cadres, no government can put down permanent roots. That is Janos Kadar's problem—which is directly linked to the Berlin crisis and the current meeting at Geneva to talk about Berlin.

Inside Washington

By Henry Cathcart

One area where the President is winning far greater cooperation than he expected is foreign affairs. The shock of John Foster Dulles' illness at a critical time in world affairs largely accounts for this cooperation.

Apparently, the Democratic leadership on Capitol Hill is unwilling to take any public blame which might stem from political actions in this field. There is an obvious desire on the part of both political parties to achieve as much unity in foreign affairs as is possible, not only for domestic political reasons, but to impress the Communist adversaries with the fact that the United States is not split over the question of how to deal with Red threats over such issues as Berlin, a united Germany, preservation of the Middle East status quo, and other world tender spots.

In any event, Christian A. Herter, the new Secretary of State, is receiving near-unanimous support from the Democrats in Congress. This situation probably will continue through the present session.

Why Are Babies Born At Such Odd Hours?

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Births occur at random intervals, dictated by the biological processes and the prospective mother. But it is difficult to convince the wife of a physician who practices obstetrics that most babies are not born at night, on holidays or week-ends, or during the vacation season of the year.

That there is some basis for this belief is shown by the results of a study made of the hour, day, and month of 38,668 deliveries in four Oklahoma City hospitals. Ten per cent more babies arrived at night than during the day and the favorite hour was between 3 and 4 a. m. The delivery rooms were least busy during the afternoon, with the lowest incidence at 3 p. m.

Business began to pick up in the hospitals between 5 and 8 in the evening and things were humming by midnight. Night work leaves the physician a bit bleary-eyed the next morning but it has one consoling feature: He is reasonably certain of conducting his afternoon office hours without competing with the stork.

Babies are born any day of the week but the pet day in Oklahoma City was Tuesday. August was the busiest month and April the slowest.

Dr. T. C. Points, who conducted the survey, had a reasonable explanation for the greater incidence of births in late summer and early autumn. Fertility of ova and sperm is lowest in tropical climates and highest in temperate environments. August, September, and October newborns were conceived in November, December, or January, the coldest months in Oklahoma.

Will these statistics be changed by the increasing popularity of air conditioning? Your guess is as good as mine but the results of any study along this line are more interesting than practical. Babies will continue to be born at all hours of the day and night, from Sunday thru Saturday, and from January thru December.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

INDIGESTION

M. R. writes: Since a heart attack several months ago I have been troubled with belching on awakening in the morning. Is this part of the heart condition?

REPLY

Many persons with heart trouble have indigestion, which may or may not be related to the old ticker. In some instances it stems from the heart medication; in others it is associated with anxiety. Gall bladder disease may be responsible. Burping angina is the term used by some physicians to describe this condition, especially when belching brings relief. Why not bring this symptom to your physician's attention?

NUCLEUS OF STONE

R. T. writes: How does a gallstone start?

REPLY

The nucleus of a stone is formed when bile chemicals crystallize and stick or mat together; bacteria also join the fun. As more and more crystals adhere to this nucleus, it enlarges. Unless the stone passes, it grows gradually until it is too large to escape.

INSULIN HELPS

G. T. writes: I have had diabetes for 10 years that I know about. Up until a year ago I could control the sugar by diet, but at that time my doctor thought it advisable for me to take insulin. Will any ill effects follow the use of insulin?

REPLY

No. Furthermore, you might have ill effects if you didn't take insulin.

OPERATION AT 65

N. B. writes: Can a healthy man of 65 safely undergo a hernia operation?

REPLY

Yes.

LICHEN PLANUS

D. L. writes: I have lichen planus but the pills the doctor gave me are not doing much good, as the eruption seems to be spreading. Do you think there is any cure for this disease?

REPLY

Keep your fingers crossed. There is no specific remedy for this skin disorder. It may last for months or years and comes and goes for no apparent reason. Spontaneous improvement occurs often. Sometimes a vacation results in temporary or even permanent cure.

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

Biggest suckers for worthless stocks and crackbrain inventions are doctors and dentists, according to Wall Street authorities. Other professional men are not far behind.

Mark Twain was a prize sitting duck for swindlers, but he finally promised his wife he had learned his lesson, and henceforth would buy nothing riskier than a short term government bond. When a very earnest, slender man came along with a strange contraption under his arm, and offered a substantial share in his invention for just $1,000, Twain refused abruptly, "I've been burned too often," he explained.

As the disappointed inventor was leaving, Twain asked, "What did you say your name was?" "Bell," answered the inventor

sadly. "Alexander Graham Bell."

U.S. Losing Gold

By Leslie Gould

NEW YORK

The United States has been losing gold — about $290 million this year on top of $2¼ billion last year.

There is nothing alarming about this, but it has stirred renewed pressure and propaganda from London — principally — and certain speculative circles here for the U. S. Treasury to boost its gold buying price.

Russia is also in the act. Anastas Mikoyan as far back as last August was urging the same action.

The present gold buying price is $35 an ounce, established in 1934 by President Roosevelt after the advent of the New Deal. The previous price had been $20.67 an ounce.

The present outflow is due chiefly to the approaching deadline for other nations to increase their gold deposits with the International Monetary Fund. The Fund has increased the quotas for gold deposits, and the U. S. gold stocks are being drawn on to meet this call.

U. S. gold reserves are now down to $20 billion 244 million. This is the lowest they have been since 1945, when they stood at $20 billion 083 million. They reached $24 billion 427 million in 1949.

There was a big loss of gold by the U. S. in 1950 — about $2¾ billions. In 1953, a loss of $1 billion 161 million and last year $2 billion 275 million.

The continued inflation and unbalanced federal budgets have played a minor role in this, but not to the extent the advocates of a higher gold buying price would have you believe.

The dollar in relation to the British pound probably is overvalued. To put it another way, the British pound is undervalued at $2.82. This is because Britain has been doing a better job of controlling inflation and balancing its budget.

Whether this is permanent or just a temporary condition depends on what happens in the coming British elections. If the Labor Party gets back in power, spending again will be the order of the day in Britain.

Confidence in the pound will suffer if that happens. Just as confidence in the dollar has been harmed by the continued inflation here and the failure of the Eisenhower Administration to make any substantial reductions in spending.

It is interesting, and maybe significant, that London, South Africa and Moscow should be calling for a higher U. S. Treasury buying price for gold. South Africa's position is understandable — being the world's largest gold producer. The same for Russia as the world's second largest gold producer. But not so the position of such an outstanding financier as Sir Jeremy Raisman, deputy chairman of London's Lloyds Bank.

Sir Jeremy thinks the U. S. Treasury should double the gold buying price — $70 an ounce instead of the present $35. He must have had his tongue in cheek when he said as to American contentions this would be a devaluation of the dollar:

"We do not regard it that way. We regard it as a revaluation of gold in all currencies. Depreciation of the dollar is the last thing we want to see."

That's for the birds.

Mikoyan, who is director of the Russian economic policy, says the difference between the present "artificially established price" and the price that should exist amounts to the tribute paid by the countries that sell gold to the United States.

Russia has been selling around $250 million in gold in each of the last two years. Doubling the U. S. gold buying price would raise the floor the American Government has for years been maintaining under the world gold market. Instead of getting a quarter of a billion in badly needed American dollars, the Russians would get half a billion a year for financing their world wide subversion.

Raising the gold buying price would be great for everyone — including the Russians — but not for the United States.

Wilhelm Misses 2nd No-Hitter Against Yanks, Wins 5-0

Jerry Lumpe Gets Single In Eighth

Orioles' Triandos Hits 2-Run Homer Off Turley In 1st

BALTIMORE (UPI) — Jerry Lumpe's eighth-inning single deprived Hoyt Wilhelm of his second no-hit, no-run game against the New York Yankee within an eight-month span Friday night when the Baltimore Orioles added to the humiliation of the last-place champions with a 5-0 victory.

Beats Yanks 3rd Time

Wilhelm, who had relieved in 363 games before receiving his first major league start last season, now has beaten the Yankees three straight times as a member of the Orioles. The shutout was the fifth of the year against the fading world champions who have lost eight of their last 11 games and 17 of their last 23 in their plunge into the A.L. cellar.

Wilhelm, a native of Huntersville, N. C., achieved his greatest fame as a reliever with the world champion New York Giants in 1954 when he won 12 games and lost four. When it was felt he had lost his effectiveness, the Giants traded him to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1957 and the Cards in turn sold him to the Cleveland Indians on Sept. 21 of that season.

The Orioles picked him up from the Indians for the waiver price on Aug. 23, 1958 and he wound up with a combined record of 3-10 last season.

Owns 6-0 Record

Wilhelm, who received a standing ovation from the appreciative crowd of 29,084 when he came to bat in the bottom of the eighth, pitched his no-hitter against the Yankees last Sept. 20 and was on his way toward becoming the second man in major league history to no-hit the same club twice when Lumpe singled cleanly to left-center leading off the eighth.

The 35-year-old Wilhelm, who walked six men en route to his sixth straight victory of the season without a loss, obviously was a bit disappointed at missing his second no-hitter, but shrugged it off.

The defeat kept the Yankees mired in the American League cellar, percentage points behind the seventh-place Detroit Tigers, who bowed to the first-place Cleveland Indians, 1-0.

Triandos Poles Homer

Gus Triandos, whose homer gave Wilhelm the run he needed to win his no-hitter against the Yankees last September, delivered the big blow of a Baltimore four-run rally in the first inning Friday night.

World Series hero Bob Turley started for the Yankees and retired the first two batters but Al Pilarcik looped a double to left field and scored when Gene Woodling singled.

Triandos then bombed a two-run homer into the left field stands to make the Orioles' lead, 3-0.

Singles by Billy Klaus and Chico Carrasquel and two walks forced over the fourth Baltimore run of the inning.

Pirates Beat Reds On Homer By Schofield

Wallop In Ninth Decides Game, 4-3

By RUDY CERNKOVIC
United Press International

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Dick Schofield hit a home run with one out in the ninth inning Friday night to give the Pittsburgh Pirates a 4-3 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

The Reds swarmed onto the field protesting that a fan in the right field stands had attempted to grab the ball. However, umpire Ed Sudol signalled a home run much to the delight of 27,674 fans, the largest home crowd since opening day.

Schofield, who replaced Captain Dick Groat in the lineup, socked the climax blow off Hal Jaffcoat, who entered the game in that inning. Jeffcoat absorbed the loss.

Vernon Law picked up his fourth victory of the season, scattering eight hits. He was in trouble in the ninth inning but pitched out. After retiring 11 batters in a row, Law was touched for a leadoff single by Gus Bell, a safe bunt by Ed Bailey, and after Frank Thomas sacrificed, Roy McMillan was walked purposely to fill the bases. But Law struck out pinch - hitter Johnny Powers and Johnny Temple forced McMillan.

Former Pirate Jerry Lynch put the Reds ahead, 3-2 in the third inning when he crashed his seventh homer into the right field stands to score behind Temple, who had singled. The Reds scored their initial run in the first inning on Temple's single and Vada Pinson's double.

The Pirates scored a pair of runs in the first inning on Bill Virdon's single, Rocky Nelson's double, Bob Skinner's walk and Bill Mazeroski's single. They picked up a tally in the fifth inning. Virdon doubled, Rocky Nelson was hit by a ball thrown by starter Bob Purkey and Skinner walked on four straight pitches to load the bases. Mazeroski forced Skinner and Virdon scored.

Princeton, East Bank Teams Take Regional Titles

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Two regional championships were decided Friday as action continued to narrow down the number of teams to wind up at the State High School Baseball tournament May 28-29 at Parkersburg.

Princeton won its ninth in a row by swamping Mullens 13-5 for the Region 6 championship at Bluefield, and East Bank nipped Madison 4-3 in Region 7 at Charleston.

Montgomery was to have taken on Williamsburg at Hinton for the Region 5 title, but the game was called off because of rain. The two will meet Saturday for the championship.

The various regional winners meet in four area playoffs to determine who goes to Parkersburg for the state championship title matches.

Hott Is Reported Better After Two Days In Hospital

George Hott, 31, football and baseball coach at Moorefield High School, is improved at his home in Moorefield after spending two days in Grant County Memorial Hospital, Petersburg, where he was taken early Wednesday morning after he had complained of severe pains in his chest and stomach.

Hott, former Moorefield High and Shepherd College athlete, said that hospital attaches reported he was suffering from a gastric condition probably caused by food poisoning.

George returned to his home yesterday and declared he was "feeling fine."

Snyder's first victory came aboard Noble Chip, a 4-year-old filly who hadn't won a race in two years. Noble Chip paid $70.20, $24.60 and $15.60 for her first win in eight starts this year.

Polylad won his second race in as many starts this year by capturing the featured $3,000 Mattapan purse. The 3-year-old son of Polynesian outdistanced Sun Better and Aberdeen in the mile event, covering the course in 1:39.

Polylad paid $3.20, $2.80 and $2.20. Sun Better returned $4.40 and $2.80 and Aberdeen $2.40.

Salisbury has reeled off five wins in a row and the Somerset countians hope to make it six when they tackle the Centerville Reds Sunday at Salisbury. Salisbury trails Hyndman in the close race with a 5-2 record while Centerville is 3-3.

Barrelville (4-3) hosts Wellersburg (1-5) and Grantsville (3-3) does battle with the Farmers (0-6) and Flintstone in other games on tap for tomorrow.

Sam Smith Posts Perfect 300 Game In Match At Del's

Sam Smith, member of McIntyre's Chevrolet team, bowled a perfect 300 game last night on Del's Recreation Alleys, Bowling Green, during a playoff match in the Allegany County Tenpin League between McIntyre's and the Old Exports.

It was the second perfect score rolled on Del's lanes, the other having been recorded about three years ago by Homer Turner of Romney. Turner's score, however, was not made in a sanctioned match.

Smith will be entitled to a gold wrist watch, offered by the American Bowling Congress. The Allegany County Tenpin League is an affiliate of the ABC and Smith, a resident of Bowling Green, posted his 300 in a sanctioned match.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Alex Miteff, Argentine heavyweight, floundered to a unanimous decision over substitute Wayne Bethea of New York Friday in their dull 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden.

Their encounter, marred by much holding and wrestling in the last four rounds, brought boxing back to the Garden after an absence of two months.

Minoso's Double Wins Game In 7th

CLEVELAND (UPI) — The Cleveland Indians, backed by Gary Bell's four-hitter, broke Paul Foytack's no-hit bid in the seventh inning and went on to score the run that nipped the Detroit Tigers, 1-0, Friday night.

With one out in the seventh, Vic Power lined a double to right for Cleveland's first hit and came home on Minnie Minoso's double to left. Those were the only Indians hits but it scored the run Bell needed to win his fourth game of the year. He has lost two.

Foytack, who suffered his sixth loss, exited for a pinch-hitter when the Tigers threatened in the eighth.

Lou Berberet opened with a single and was sacrificed to second but died there as Bell retired pinch-hitter Neil Chrisley and Eddie Yost. Ray Narleski pitched the eighth for Detroit.

Until Power's double, only one Indian had reached base against Foytack. Rocky Colavito was safe on shortstop Rocky Bridges' low throw to first.

The other Tigers hits off Bell also were singles, by Gail Harris in the second, Charley Maxwell in the fourth, and Al Kaline in the ninth.

Aaron Gets 4 Hits, Average Now .468

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Hank Aaron, boosting his league-leading average to .468 with a homer, a double and a pair of singles, led the Milwaukee Braves on a 16-hit spree which smothered the Philadelphia Phillies 10-5 here Friday night.

Aaron showed the Phils he meant business in the first inning by slamming his 13th homer of the season into the upper left field stands, scoring Bill Bruton ahead of him. He salted starter Robin Roberts' wounds in the second with a double which scored Eddie Mathews, and sent Roberts from the mound with his third loss against two wins for the season.

Lew Burdette, who gave up 12 hits, including a 2-run homer to pinch hitter Gene Freese, notched his seventh win of the season against two losses. He's the first pitcher in the majors to win that many this season. Burdette held the Phils to three hits until the sixth inning, when he yielded a brace of singles to Richie Ashburn and Chico Fernandez, Ashburn scoring on a fly by Ed Bouchee.

Senators Drop Fifth Straight

Malzone's Double Wins In 7th, 4-3

BOSTON (AP)—Frank Malzone doubled home Ted Williams in the seventh inning Friday night for a 4-3 Boston decision that sent faltering Washington to its fifth straight defeat.

The Red Sox third baseman's drive to left field got away from Jim Lemon and Williams, who had hit a high fly two-bagger to the base of the barrier in left, was across the plate before the ball was retrieved.

Williams had tied the score 3-3 in the fifth on a sacrifice fly after losing pitcher Camilio Pascual set up the score by committing his third balk of the contest.

The major league record for balks in a game is four by Vic Raschi of the New York Yankees May 3, 1950.

Hansberger's Ft. Ashby Win Is Protested

"Oversized Engine" Charge Considered

Dick Hansberger, of Mt. Jackson, Va., easily won the 20 lap feature stock car race last night at the Potomac Valley Speedway, Fort Ashby before a turnout of 800 fans but his victory was protested when he was charged with "riding an oversized engine."

Jim Raupach, promoter of the races, stated that immediately after the race, the work of tearing down the engine on Hansberger's car was started to measure the bore and stroke was started. A final decision will be made today.

If the engine on the winning machine has a 270 cubic inch piston displacement or less, Hansberger will be declared the winner. If it is greater than 270, the win will go to Dave Hobell, of Lonaconing, who finished in the runner-up spot.

Neil Bowers, Keyser, was third; Louie Leatherman, Fort Ashby, fourth, and Cowboy Hawkins, Headsville, W. Va., fifth, in the main event.

Results of the 10 lap heat races on the first Friday program of the season were:

Harry Davidow Will Not Pilot Johansson Here

D'Amato's "Stooge" Is Denied License

By JACK CUDDY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Harry Davidow, labeled "a stooge for Cus D'Amato," Friday was denied a license to serve as heavyweight challenger Ingemar Johansson's American manager under a proposed five-year "slave contract."

The New York State Athletic Commission unanimously rejected Davidow's application and indirectly suggested that Johansson's father, Jens, serve as the European champion's manager when he meets world title-holder Floyd Patterson at Yankee Stadium June 25.

One commission member, former Chairman Julius Helfand, snorted, "This whole thing stinks to high heaven" when Davidow's application was presented for action.

"It was apparent that Davidow was to be merely a stooge for Cus D'Amato (Patterson's manager)," Helfand added.

Said D'Amato Advised Him

Both Davidow, a Brooklyn restaurateur who has not held a manager's license for 10 years, and Johansson testified under oath at commission headquarters.

Johansson, attired in a blue summer suit, said D'Amato advised him that the Swede's father could not serve as his manager for the Patterson fight.

At that point, Helfand interrupted Johansson's testimony, declaring there is no New York rule that prohibits a father from managing his son in the state.

Johansson then testified he was told, "I would have to have a manager who was acceptable to Mr. D'Amato." He explained that at first D'Amato had suggested giving 33 1-3 per cent of his earnings on a five-year contract to a new American manager but they had finally settled on 10 per cent as the figure.

Announced By Kruelewitch

During Davidow's testimony he claimed D'Amato told him the names of several other managers, in addition to his own, had been submitted to Johansson. However, Johansson denied this in later testimony.

When Chairman Melvin L. Kruelewitch announced the decision, he declared the commission would consider whether "any other parties" will be called to testify in connection with Davidow's application. This indicated that the case is not closed and D'Amato may face questioning.

Orioles' Triandos Hits 2-Run Homer Off Turley In 1st

BALTIMORE (UPI) — Jerry Lumpe's eighth-inning single deprived Hoyt Wilhelm of his second no-hit, no-run game against the New York Yankees within an eight-month span Friday night when the Baltimore Orioles added to the humiliation of the last-place champions with a 5-0 victory.

Beats Yanks 3rd Time

Wilhelm, who had relieved in 363 games before receiving his first major league start last season, now has beaten the Yankees three straight times as a member of the Orioles. The shutout was the fifth of the year against the fading world champions who have lost eight of their last 11 games and 17 of their last 23 in their plunge into the A.L. cellar.

Wilhelm, a native of Huntersville, N. C., achieved his greatest fame as a reliever with the world champion New York Giants in 1954 when he won 12 games and lost four. When it was felt he had lost his effectiveness, the Giants traded him to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1957 and the Cards in turn sold him to the Cleveland Indians on Sept. 21 of that season.

The Orioles picked him up from the Indians for the waiver price on Aug. 23, 1958 and he wound up with a combined record of 3-10 last season.

Owns 6-0 Record

Wilhelm, who received a standing ovation from the appreciative crowd of 29,084 when he came to bat in the bottom of the eighth, pitched his no-hitter against the Yankees last Sept. 20 and was on his way toward becoming the second man in major league history to no-hit the same club twice when Lumpe singled cleanly to left-center leading off the eighth.

The 35-year-old Wilhelm, who walked six men en route to his sixth straight victory of the season without a loss, obviously was a bit disappointed at missing his second no-hitter, but shrugged it off.

The defeat kept the Yankees mired in the American League cellar, percentage points behind the seventh-place Detroit Tigers, who bowed to the first-place Cleveland Indians, 1-0.

Triandos Poles Homer

Gus Triandos, whose homer gave Wilhelm the run he needed to win his no-hitter against the Yankees last September, delivered the big blow of a Baltimore four-run rally in the first inning Friday night.

World Series hero Bob Turley started for the Yankees and retired the first two batters but Al Pilarcik looped a double to left field and scored when Gene Woodling singled.

Triandos then bombed a two-run homer into the left field stands to make the Orioles' lead, 3-0.

Singles by Billy Klaus and Chico Carrasquel and two walks forced over the fourth Baltimore run of the inning.

Pirates Beat Reds On Homer By Schofield

Wallop In Ninth Decides Game, 4-3

By RUDY CERNKOVIC
United Press International

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Dick Schofield hit a home run with one out in the ninth inning Friday night to give the Pittsburgh Pirates a 4-3 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

The Reds swarmed onto the field protesting that a fan in the right field stands had attempted to grab the ball. However, umpire Ed Sudol signalled a home run much to the delight of 27,674 fans, the largest home crowd since opening day.

Schofield, who replaced Captain Dick Groat in the lineup, socked the climax blow off Hal Jaffcoat, who entered the game in that inning. Jeffcoat absorbed the loss.

Vernon Law picked up his fourth victory of the season, scattering eight hits. He was in trouble in the ninth inning but pitched out. After retiring 11 batters in a row, Law was touched for a leadoff single by Gus Bell, a safe bunt by Ed Bailey, and after Frank Thomas sacrificed, Roy McMillan was walked purposely to fill the bases. But Law struck out pinch-hitter Johnny Powers and Johnny Temple forced McMillan.

Former Pirate Jerry Lynch put the Reds ahead, 3-2 in the third inning when he crashed his seventh homer into the right field stands to score behind Temple, who had singled. The Reds scored their initial run in the first inning on Temple's single and Vada Pinson's double.

The Pirates scored a pair of runs in the first inning on Bill Virdon's single, Rocky Nelson's double, Bob Skinner's walk and Bill Mazeroski's single. They picked up a tally in the fifth inning. Virdon doubled, Rocky Nelson was hit by a ball thrown by starter Bob Purkey and Skinner walked on four straight pitches to load the bases. Mazeroski forced Skinner and Virdon scored.

Sam Smith Posts Perfect 300 Game In Match At Del's

It was the second perfect score rolled on Del's lanes, the other having been recorded about three years ago by Homer Turner of Romney. Turner's score, however, was not made in a sanctioned match.

Smith will be entitled to a gold wrist watch, offered by the American Bowling Congress. The Allegany County Tenpin League is an affiliate of the ABC and Smith, a resident of Bowling Green, posted his 300 in a sanctioned match.

Minoso's Double Wins Game In 7th

CLEVELAND (UPI) — The Cleveland Indians, backed by Gary Bell's four-hitter, broke Paul Foytack's no-hit bid in the seventh inning and went on to score the run that nipped the Detroit Tigers, 1-0, Friday night.

With one out in the seventh, Vic Power lined a double to right for Cleveland's first hit and came home on Minnie Minoso's double to left. Those were the only Indians hits but it scored the run Bell needed to win his fourth game of the year. He has lost two.

Foytack, who suffered his sixth loss, exited for a pinch-hitter when the Tigers threatened in the eighth.

Lou Berberet opened with a single and was sacrificed to second but died there as Bell retired pinch-hitter Neil Chrisley and Eddie Yost. Ray Narleski pitched the eighth for Detroit.

Until Power's double, only one Indian had reached base against Foytack. Rocky Colavito was safe on shortstop Rocky Bridges' low throw to first.

The other Tigers hits off Bell also were singles, by Gail Harris in the second, Charley Maxwell in the fourth, and Al Kaline in the ninth.

Aaron Gets 4 Hits, Average Now .468

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Hank Aaron, boosting his league-leading average to .468 with a homer, a double and a pair of singles, led the Milwaukee Braves on a 16-hit spree which smothered the Philadelphia Phillies 10-5 here Friday night.

Aaron showed the Phils he meant business in the first inning by slamming his 13th homer of the season into the upper left field stands, scoring Bill Bruton ahead of him. He salted starter Robin Roberts' wounds in the second with a double which scored Eddie Mathews, and sent Roberts from the mound with his third loss against two wins for the season.

Lew Burdette, who gave up 12 hits, including a 2-run homer to pinch hitter Gene Freese, notched his seventh win of the season against two losses. He's the first pitcher in the majors to win that many this season. Burdette held the Phils to three hits until the sixth inning, when he yielded a brace of singles to Richie Ashburn and Chico Fernandez, Ashburn scoring on a fly by Ed Bouchee.

Senators Drop Fifth Straight

Malzone's Double Wins In 7th, 4-3

BOSTON (AP)—Frank Malzone doubled home Ted Williams in the seventh inning Friday night for a 4-3 Boston decision that sent faltering Washington to its fifth straight defeat.

The Red Sox third baseman's drive to left field got away from Jim Lemon and Williams, who had hit a high fly two-bagger to the base of the barrier in left, was across the plate before the ball was retrieved.

Williams had tied the score 3-3 in the fifth on a sacrifice fly after losing pitcher Camilio Pascual set up the score by committing his third balk of the contest.

The major league record for balks in a game is four by Vic Raschi of the New York Yankees May 3, 1950.

Hansberger's Ft. Ashby Win Is Protested

"Oversized Engine" Charge Considered

Dick Hansberger, of Mt. Jackson, Va., easily won the 20 lap feature stock car race last night at the Potomac Valley Speedway, Fort Ashby before a turnout of 800 fans but his victory was protested when he was charged with "riding an oversized engine."

Jim Raupach, promoter of the races, stated that immediately after the race, the work of tearing down the engine on Hansberger's car was started to measure the bore and stroke was started. A final decision will be made today.

If the engine on the winning machine has a 270 cubic inch piston displacement or less, Hansberger will be declared the winner. If it is greater than 270, the win will go to Dave Hobell, of Lonaconing, who finished in the runner-up spot.

Neil Bowers, Keyser, was third; Louie Leatherman, Fort Ashby, fourth, and Cowboy Hawkins, Headsville, W. Va., fifth, in the main event.

Results of the four 10 lap heat races on the first Friday program of the season were:

Harry Davidow Will Not Pilot Johansson Here

D'Amato's "Stooge" Is Denied License

By JACK CUDDY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Harry Davidow, labeled "a stooge for Cus D'Amato," Friday was denied a license to serve as heavyweight challenger Ingemar Johansson's American manager under a proposed five-year "slave contract."

The New York State Athletic Commission unanimously rejected Davidow's application and indirectly suggested that Johansson's father, Jens, serve as the European champion's manager when he meets world title-holder Floyd Patterson at Yankee Stadium June 25.

One commission member, former Chairman Julius Helfand, snorted, "This whole thing stinks to high heaven" when Davidow's application was presented for action.

"It was apparent that Davidow was to be merely a stooge for Cus D'Amato (Patterson's manager)," Helfand added.

Said D'Amato Advised Him

Both Davidow, a Brooklyn restaurateur who has not held a manager's license for 10 years, and Johansson testified under oath at commission headquarters.

Johansson, attired in a blue summer suit, said D'Amato advised him that the Swede's father could not serve as his manager for the Patterson fight.

At that point, Helfand interrupted Johansson's testimony, declaring there is no New York rule that prohibits a father from managing his son in the state.

Johansson then testified he was told, "I would have to have a manager who was acceptable to Mr. D'Amato." He explained that at first D'Amato had suggested giving 33 1-3 per cent of his earnings on a five-year contract to a new American manager but they had finally settled on 10 per cent as the figure.

Announced By Kruelewitch

During Davidow's testimony he claimed D'Amato told him the names of several other managers, in addition to his own, had been submitted to Johansson. However, Johansson denied this in later testimony.

When Chairman Melvin L. Kruelewitch announced the decision, he said the commission would consider whether "any other parties" will be called to testify in connection with Davidow's application. This indicated that the case is not closed and D'Amato may face questioning.

Beall Snaps Mt. Savage's 10-Game Winning Streak, 5-3

Fort Hill Trails By Game With 10-0 Win Over Bulldogs

Mt. Savage High School's ten-game winning streak came to an end yesterday as the Indians suffered a 5-3 licking at the hands of Beall High School at Mt. Savage and saw their lead reduced to one game in the Allegany High School Baseball League when Fort Hill's Sentinels trounced Bruce High to the tune of 10-0 at Fort Hill Field.

Prior to yesterday's game, Mt. Savage had gone undefeated since April 15 when the Indians dropped their season opener to Fort Hill High School, 3-2. The string of ten straight wins included a 9-3 decision over Beall.

Clinging to a one-game lead over Fort Hill, the Indians have two more games on their schedule with LaSalle and Valley. Fort Hill has contests with Flintstone and Allegany. Fort Hill, Mt. Savage and Allegany shared the title last season.

Wes Lashbaugh gained the decision over Jack Lowery in yesterday's upset at Mt. Savage. Lashbaugh tossed a 6-hitter, fanned six and walked five while Lowery whiffed five, walked two and yielded seven safeties including a homer and triple by Chester Carter and a round-tripper by Jim Evans.

Zumpano Hit Decides

With the score knotted at 2-all Beall won the game with a two-run rally in the 7th and final stanza. Jim Gardner drew a pass to start the uprising. Joe McGowan grounded to Don Lowery who threw to Shortstop Fay Often for a force play at second base but when the latter dropped the ball both runners were safe. Gene Zumpano singled home the tie-breaking run and Carter's sacrifice bunt squeezed home McGowan with the insurance tally.

Rich Lybarger hit a two-run homer for Mt. Savage in the fourth inning. Evans and Carter hit solo homers for Coach Enordo "Moose" Arnone's Mountaineers in the second and fourth innings, respectively.

Price Posts 4th Victory

Johnny Price, who posted a 10-0 record last year for the Kiwanis Club, Hot Stove League pennant winner, made it 4-0 for the current campaign when he hurled Fort Hill's Sentinels to their 9th victory in 12 starts.

Price limited the Bruce Bulldogs to two hits, walked two and struck out two in giving the Sentinels an even break in the season series with the Westernport team which is now 6-6 in the league.

Fort Hill larruped the offerings of three Bruce hurlers for 14 hits, including a pair of triples and two singles by Donnie Lewis who had a perfect day at the plate. Six of Fort Hill's blows were for extra bases. Glen Shipway had two hits and four RBIs and Clarence Kean also garnered a pair of safeties.

Valley Belts Aggies

Valley High assured itself a .500 or better record for the season by notching its 7th victory against the five defeats by downing Flintstone High at Barton, 14 to 5. It was the 12th defeat for the winless Aggies this season.

Jim Getty pitched the first four innings for Valley and got credit for the win. He had a 10-2 lead when Roger Wilson took over in the fifth. Two of Flintstone's five hits were credited to Alvin Vance.

LaSalle Trims Allegany

LaSalle defeated Allegany in a "Comedy of Errors" at Campobello by the score of 10-5. A total of 18 fielding miscues were charged against the teams — 11 against the Campers and 7 against the Explorers.

Allegany held a 5-3 lead until the top of the fifth when LaSalle scored five runs to put the game on ice. The highlight of the LaSalle rally was a three-run triple by Mike Long which put LaSalle ahead to stay.

Jack Bahen was the "big gun" for LaSalle with four hits in as many official trips. He blasted a two-run homer in the fourth and also smacked a two-bagger and two singles. Scaletta hit safely thrice for the winners. Stratton had two of Allegany's seven hits and Jim Willette clouted a home run.

Rice Notches Fourth

Charley Rice got credit for the win, his fourth against one loss, while Cliff Montgomery, who went the route for the Campers, took the loss. Montgomery whiffed 11 batsmen and also yielded 11 hits. Green, LaSalle's second baseman, turned in the fielding gem when he speared Ted Femi's grounder over second base for a force out which retired Allegany in the 6th after the Campers had loaded the hassocks.

Roger Maris Undergoes Emergency Operation

Kansas City's Top Hitter Will Be Lost To Club For Month

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — Roger Maris, 24-year - old right fielder who leads the Kansas City Athletics in all hitting categories, was reported in good condition Friday after undergoing an emergency appendectomy.

Manager Harry Craft tried to be as optimistic as possible as the A's currently are in fourth place and are fighting for their highest finish since moving to Kansas City.

Maris was rushed to St. Luke's Hospital at 4 a.m. Friday for the operation.

He had complained of nausea on the A's plane flight in from Boston Thursday night, but the trip was a rough one because of bad weather and no one thought it unusual.

Cardinals Win 14-Inning Tilt From Cubs, 3-1

Double By Cimoli, Balk Net Two Runs

By GENE BLUDEAU
United Press International

CHICAGO (UPI)—Gino Cimoli's double and a balk by relief pitcher Bill Henry in the 14th inning Friday gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 3-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Cimoli's clout off the right field wall, his 16th double of the season, was the seventh of eight Cardinal hits in the game, which lasted almost four hours, including a 36-minute delay because of rain.

The victory went to Jim Brosnan, who yielded only one hit in the last six innings. It was his first victory in four decisions.

The Cardinal reliever came on in the ninth inning after starter Gary Blaylock put two men on base and was charged with the Cubs' tieing run after pinch-hitter Earl Averill belted a run-scoring single off Brosnan.

The Cardinals were able to reach Cub starter Glenn Hobbie for only three hits over seven innings and scored their first run in a hitless fourth frame.

It was the second loss for Henry against three victories. Henry came on in the 10th and yielded only one hit until the Cardinal two-run 14th.

84th Running Set Today At Belmont

By RAY AYRES
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — Elkcam Stable's Atoll, with Eddie Arcaro back in the saddle, headed a field of 13 entered for Saturday's 84th running of the $75,000-added Withers Stakes.

Atoll was ninth in the Kentucky Derby in his last start. Earlier in the year, before Arcaro switched to First Landing for the 3-year-old classics, Eddie guided Atoll to victory in the Swift and Gotham Stakes.

Each horse carries 126 pounds in a race to be televised nationally by CBS from 4 to 4:30 p.m. e.d.t. with post time at 4:16.

Seven Corners and Manassa Mauler are the only starters not eligible for the Belmont Stakes, although several owners already have said they did not plan to run their horses in the testing third jewel in the Triple Crown.

Zuverink Is Placed On The Active List

BALTIMORE (UPI)—The Baltimore Orioles restored relief pitcher George Zuverink to the active list Friday.

The 32-year-old right hander, who had a 2-2 record for the Orioles last season, has been on the disabled list since April 9 because of an ailing arm.

A place on the Orioles' roster was made available when infielder Bobby Avila was sold to the Boston Red Sox Thursday.

Beall Snaps Mt. Savage's 10-Game Winning Streak, 5-3

Fort Hill Trails By Game With 10-0 Win Over Bulldogs

Standing Of The Teams

School	W.	L.	Pct.
Mt. Savage	10	2	.833
Fort Hill	9	3	.750
LaSalle	8	4	.667
Valley	7	5	.583
Bruce	6	6	.500
Beall	5	6	.455
Allegany	2	9	.182
Flintstone	0	12	.000

Mt. Savage High School's ten-game winning streak came to an end yesterday as the Indians suffered a 5-3 licking at the hands of Beall High School at Mt. Savage and saw their lead reduced to one game in the Allegany High School Baseball League when Fort Hill's Sentinels trounced Bruce High to the tune of 10-0 at Fort Hill Field.

Prior to yesterday's game, Mt. Savage had gone undefeated since April 15 when the Indians dropped their season opener to Fort Hill High School, 3-2. The string of ten straight wins included a 9-3 decision over Beall.

Clinging to a one-game lead over Fort Hill, the Indians have two more games on their schedule with LaSalle and Valley. Fort Hill has contests with Flintstone and Allegany. Fort Hill, Mt. Savage and Allegany shared the title last season.

Wes Lashbaugh gained the decision over Jack Lowery in yesterday's upset at Mt. Savage. Lashbaugh tossed a 6-hitter, fanned six and walked five while Lowery whiffed five, walked two and yielded seven safeties including a homer and triple by Chester Carter and a round-tripper by Jim Evans.

Zumpano Hit Decides

With the score knotted at 2-all Beall won the game with a two-run rally in the 7th and final stanza. Jim Gardner drew a pass to start the uprising. Joe McGowan grounded to Don Lowery who threw to Shortstop Fay Often for a force play at second base but when the latter dropped the ball both runners were safe. Gene Zumpano singled home the tie-breaking run and Carter's sacrifice bunt squeezed home McGowan with the insurance tally.

Rich Lybarger hit a two-run homer for Mt. Savage in the fourth inning. Evans and Carter hit solo homers for Coach Enordo "Moose" Arnone's Mountaineers in the second and fourth innings, respectively.

Price Posts 4th Victory

Johnny Price, who posted a 10-0 record last year for the Kiwanis Club, Hot Stove League pennant winner, made it 4-0 for the current campaign when he hurled Fort Hill's Sentinels to their 9th victory in 12 starts.

Price limited the Bruce Bulldogs to two hits, walked two and struck out two in giving the Sentinels an even break in the season series with the Westernport team which is now 6-6 in the league.

Fort Hill larruped the offerings of three Bruce hurlers for 14 hits, including a pair of triples and two singles by Donnie Lewis who had a perfect day at the plate. Six of Fort Hill's blows were for extra bases. Glen Shipway had two hits and four RBIs and Clarence Kean also garnered a pair of safeties.

Valley Belts Aggies

Valley High assured itself a .500 or better record for the season by notching its 7th victory against the five defeats by downing Flintstone High at Barton, 14 to 5. It was the 12th defeat for the winless Aggies this season.

Coach John Meyers' Black Knights racked up a total of 17 hits. Roger Wilson and "Hank" Winner banged three hits each while Ted Wilson, Wayne Foote, "Tippy" Metts and Bill Garlitz obtained two safeties each.

Jim Getty pitched the first four innings for Valley and got credit for the win. He had a 10-2 lead when Roger Wilson took over in the fifth. Two of Flintstone's five hits were credited to Alvin Vance.

LaSalle Trims Allegany

LaSalle defeated Allegany in a "Comedy of Errors" at Campobello by the score of 10-5. A total of 18 fielding miscues were charged against the teams — 11 against the Campers and 7 against the Explorers.

Allegany held a 5-3 lead until the top of the fifth when LaSalle scored five runs to put the game on ice. The highlight of the LaSalle rally was a three-run triple by Mike Long which put LaSalle ahead to stay.

Jack Bahen was the "big gun" for LaSalle with four hits in as many official trips. He blasted a two-run homer in the fourth and also smacked a two-bagger and two singles. Scaletta hit safely thrice for the winners. Stratton had two of Allegany's seven hits and Jim Willette clouted a home run.

Rice Notches Fourth

Charley Rice got credit for the win, his fourth against one loss, while Cliff Montgomery, who went the route for the Campers, took the loss. Montgomery whiffed 11 batsmen and also yielded 11 hits.

Green, LaSalle's second baseman, turned in the fielding gem when he speared Ted Femi's grounder over second base for a force out which retired Allegany in the 6th after the Campers had loaded the hassocks.

Roger Maris Undergoes Emergency Operation

Kansas City's Top Hitter Will Be Lost To Club For Month

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — Roger Maris, 24-year-old right fielder who leads the Kansas City Athletics in all hitting categories, was reported in good condition Friday after undergoing an emergency appendectomy.

But the condition of the Kansas City ball club without him was a question mark.

The potent bat of the southpaw slugger will be missing from the lineup at least three to four weeks.

He may be released from the hospital in 10 days.

Manager Harry Craft tried to be as optimistic as possible as the A's currently are in fourth place and are fighting for their highest finish since moving to Kansas City.

"It's a tremendous loss," Craft said. "His record speaks for itself."

Maris was batting .328 with 10 home runs and 26 runs batted in, holding the team leadership in each department.

Maris was rushed to St. Luke's Hospital at 4 a.m. Friday for the operation.

He had complained of nausea on the A's plane flight in from Boston Thursday night, but the trip was a rough one because of bad weather and no one thought it unusual.

Cardinals Win 14-Inning Tilt From Cubs, 3-1

Double By Cimoli, Balk Net Two Runs

By GENE BLUDEAU
United Press International

CHICAGO (UPI)—Gino Cimoli's double and a balk by relief pitcher Bill Henry in the 14th inning Friday gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 3-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Cimoli's clout off the right field wall, his 16th double of the season, was the seventh of eight Cardinal hits in the game, which lasted almost four hours, including a 36-minute delay because of rain.

The double scored Don Blasingame, who was safe at first on a forceout. Cimoli moved to third and tagged up after Bobby Gene Smith's fly to right, scoring when Bill Henry was charged with a balk.

The victory went to Jim Brosnan, who yielded only one hit in the last six innings. It was his first victory in four decisions.

The Cardinal reliever came on in the ninth inning after starter Gary Blaylock put two men on base and was charged with the Cubs' tieing run after pinch-hitter Earl Averill belted a run-scoring single off Brosnan.

The Cardinals were able to reach Cub starter Glenn Hobbie for only three hits over seven innings and scored their first run in a hitless fourth frame.

Hobbie issued a leadoff walk to Blasingame, who stole second base, went to third on a wild pitch and scored as George Crowe was thrown out at first.

It was the second loss for Henry against three victories. Henry came on in the 10th and yielded only one hit until the Cardinal two-run 14th.

84th Running Set Today At Belmont

By RAY AYRES
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — Elkcam Stable's Atoll, with Eddie Arcaro back in the saddle, headed a field of 13 entered for Saturday's 84th running of the $75,000-added Withers Stakes.

Atoll was ninth in the Kentucky Derby in his last start. Earlier in the year, before Arcaro switched to First Landing for the 3-year-old classics, Eddie guided Atoll to victory in the Swift and Gotham Stakes.

Brookfield farms' Intentionally and Charfran Stable's Crafty Skipper loom as the chief contention to Atoll in the Withers. Manny Ycaza, replacing the suspended Willie Hartack, rides Intentionally while Bobby Ussery handles Crafty Skipper.

Each horse carries 126 pounds in a race to be televised nationally by CBS from 4 to 4:30 p.m. e.d.t. with post time at 4:16.

Seven Corners and Manassa Mauler are the only starters not eligible for the Belmont Stakes, although several owners already have said they did not plan to run their horses in the testing third jewel in the Triple Crown.

Zuverink Is Placed On The Active List

BALTIMORE (UPI)—The Baltimore Orioles restored relief pitcher George Zuverink to the active list Friday.

The 32-year-old right hander, who had a 2-2 record for the Orioles last season, has been on the disabled list since April 9 because of an ailing arm.

A place on the Orioles' roster was made available when infielder Bobby Avila was sold to the Boston Red Sox Thursday.

Keeping Up With Hollywood

by Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD—I can tell you a little secret, which won't be a secret very long. I happen to know that Gregory Peck will play F. Scott Fitzgerald in "Beloved Infidel," opposite Deborah Kerr at 20th.

There have been many actors rumored to play the role of the well-known author. I wouldn't say that Greg is just the type, but I do know he will give a good performance. You can take it from me, too, that Greg is the No. 1 choice for "The Story on Page One," the Clifford Odets story which Cliff himself will direct with Jerry Wald as producer.

A surprise move on the part of Keely Smith and Louis Prima takes them from Capitol records to Dot. The reason for the signing of the new contract is that they get a chance to make a picture for Paramount and that, I'm told, is a part of the deal.

Much of Keely's fame is her Capitol recordings and Louis also received added fame. But the one thing they want more than anything is to make another picture. Their fabulous and unprecedented success at the Copacabana in New York where they were forced to put on three shows nightly, makes them one of the most sought after singing duos of the day.

They are on their way to New Orleans in a Chriscraft Louis bought and they expect to make it in two weeks.

Surprised to hear that Dawn Adams, who made news weeks ago in Rome by petitioning the Vatican for an annulment of her marriage to Prince Vittorio Massimo, had flown into Hollywood! Dawn hasn't been here since before her marriage several years ago to the titled Italian. However, it's career, not marriage troubles, that brings her here.

Allied Artists flagged Dawn to fly to Hollywood for additional dialogue in "Calling North Pole," her Italian picture with Curt Jurgens, which AA is releasing. "I wanted to oblige the studio by making this hurried trip," she says, "although I cannot stay here more than a couple of days."

Had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Voyle Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gilette and Jimmy McHugh at La Rue, and then we went on to hear the Kingston Trio at the Cocoanut Grove. The three boys are as modern in their singing as tomorrow's space ship. They've had great success with their "Tijuana Jail" and "Tom Dooley." They're very casual and completely natural, and are on every teenagers list. As we say in our set, they're real gassers.

There's another act at the Grove, Phil Ford and Mimi Hines, and to say they're good is the understatement of the year—they're just wonderful! They flew in from an engagement in New York. It's good to laugh and they had the room in stitches. After all her shennanigans, Mimi sang straight in a beautiful voice.

No one can say how much was publicity and how much was on the up-and-up in the Cary Grant-Kim Novak frequent appearances at the Cannes Film Festival. They certainly acted like they were crazy about each other according to someone who said they danced every dance together and did plenty of mooning.

I think I was the first to print that Cary discovered Kim at the Academy Awards banquet, and had such a good time dancing with her there. Kim is completely unpredictable, however; and I think at this moment her heart belongs as much to Director Richard Quine as it can to any one man at one time.

John Gavin's pretty blonde wife, Cecily, telephoned to invite me to luncheon Sunday. She says that just the moment John finishes "The Gladiators" they will head for Vienna.

"John plays opposite Sophia Loren in 'Olympia', and we should really be on our way now," said Cecily. "Quite a cast has been lined up with Maurice Chevalier, Angela Lansbury, Paul Lukas and Isabel Jeans. The scenes John plays in 'Gladiators' are being written day by day, and he can't leave until it's finished."

Local Man Helps In Delivering Baby

A North Cumberland father of two other children helped deliver his third child yesterday when his wife started to deliver the baby while getting in the family car to go to Memorial Hospital.

William Evans, 1610 Holland Street, said his wife, the former Miss Rosemary Leo, gave no indications that the birth was so imminent. He called a neighbor to help deliver the child, a daughter, and rushed the two of them to the hospital.

Attaches reported he appeared shaken by the ordeal.

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

Give It A Rest

Here's a real paradox.

It's very true that make-up does wonders for your face and you when it's on. But, you should keep it off your face whenever possible.

Since beauty IS a habit — get in the habit of removing your cosmetics whenever possible. When you're home alone during the day cleanse your face and apply your favorite night-care cream . . . a film of it will give additional coddling. There's no need for make-up when you're alone. If the children come for the lunch hour, apply a little lipstick.

If you're a career woman, remove your make-up the first thing when you arrive home — particularly if it's to be a solitary evening for you.

Don't misunderstand and presume that make-up is harmful for you. On the contrary, besides making you more glamorous, it also protects your skin against sun, wind, dust and grime. However, it does temporarily coat the pores—and they need the chance to breathe freely. The skin is the largest organ of the body and needs every possible break of breathing through cleansed pores.

As you have been told in our charming of face talks—one of the most important never-never rules of skin care is: Never go to bed without removing your make-up, however exhausted you may be. It takes only a few minutes and results in skin beauty that is most certainly worth the effort.

Of course, there's much more to skin care than removing make-up when you sleep. And since, as I said above, your skin is the largest organ of your body, it's important that you learn all the basic rules of care, and practice them. Why not get a copy of my "Secrets of Skin Care"? Mt. Savage Sets Dates For Clean-Up

MT. SAVAGE—The Mt. Savage Citizens Committee is sponsoring a Clean-Up Week. They are requesting residents of Mt. Savage to clean out their attics and cellars and get rid of all unnecessary accumulation they might have.

A truck has been hired which will collect on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, May 26, 27, and 28. The collection will start at Foundry Row and proceed to Railroad Street to Newton and Main Street, to Calla Hill, New Row, Columbia Avenue and Old Row.

This drive is headed by Colin Bowers who is asking that some of the citizens volunteer a few hours of their time to help load and unload the truck. Anyone with a few hours to volunteer should get in touch with Mr. Bowers at CO 4-3316.

Keeping Up With Hollywood

by Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD—I can tell you a little secret, which won't be a secret very long. I happen to know that Gregory Peck will play F. Scott Fitzgerald in "Beloved Infidel," opposite Deborah Kerr at 20th.

There have been many actors rumored to play the role of the well-known author. I wouldn't say that Greg is just the type, but I do know he will give a good performance. You can take it from me, too, that Greg is the No. 1 choice for "The Story on Page One," the Clifford Odets story which Cliff himself will direct with Jerry Wald as producer.

A surprise move on the part of Keely Smith and Louis Prima takes them from Capitol records to Dot. The reason for the signing of the new contract is that they get a chance to make a picture for Paramount and that, I'm told, is a part of the deal.

Much of Keely's fame is her Capitol recordings and Louis also received added fame. But the one thing they want more than anything is to make another picture. Their fabulous and unprecedented success at the Copacabana in New York where they were forced to put on three shows nightly, makes them one of the most sought after singing duos of the day.

They are on their way to New Orleans in a Chriscraft Louis bought and they expect to make it in two weeks.

Surprised to hear that Dawn Adams, who made news weeks ago in Rome by petitioning the Vatican for an annulment of her marriage to Prince Vittorio Massimo, had flown into Hollywood! Dawn hasn't been here since before her marriage several years ago to the titled Italian. However, it's career, not marriage troubles, that brings her here.

Allied Artists flagged Dawn to fly to Hollywood for additional dialogue in "Calling North Pole," her Italian picture with Curt Jurgens, which AA is releasing. "I wanted to oblige the studio by making this hurried trip," she says, "although I cannot stay here more than a couple of days."

Had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Voyle Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gilette and Jimmy McHugh at La Rue, and then we went on to hear the Kingston Trio at the Cocoanut Grove. The three boys are as modern in their singing as tomorrow's space ship. They've had great success with their "Tijuana Jail" and "Tom Dooley." They're very casual and completely natural, and are on every teenagers list. As we say in our set, they're real gassers.

There's another act at the Grove, Phil Ford and Mimi Hines, and to say they're good is the understatement of the year—they're just wonderful! They flew in from an engagement in New York. It's good to laugh and they had the room in stitches. After all her shennanigans, Mimi sang straight in a beautiful voice.

No one can say how much was publicity and how much was on the up-and-up in the Cary Grant-Kim Novak frequent appearances at the Cannes Film Festival. They certainly acted like they were crazy about each other according to someone who said they danced every dance together and did plenty of mooning.

I think I was the first to print that Cary discovered Kim at the Academy Awards banquet, and had such a good time dancing with her there. Kim is completely unpredictable, however; and I think at this moment her heart belongs as much to Director Richard Quine as it can to any one man at one time.

John Gavin's pretty blonde wife, Cecily, telephoned to invite me to luncheon Sunday. She says that just the moment John finishes "The Gladiators" they will head for Vienna.

"John plays opposite Sophia Loren in 'Olympia', and we should really be on our way now," said Cecily. "Quite a cast has been lined up with Maurice Chevalier, Angela Lansbury, Paul Lukas and Isabel Jeans. The scenes John plays in 'Gladiators' are being written day by day, and he can't leave until it's finished."

Local Man Helps In Delivering Baby

A North Cumberland father of two other children helped deliver his third child yesterday when his wife started to deliver the baby while getting in the family car to go to Memorial Hospital.

William Evans, 1610 Holland Street, said his wife, the former Miss Rosemary Leo, gave no indications that the birth was so imminent. He called a neighbor to help deliver the child, a daughter, and rushed the two of them to the hospital.

Attaches reported he appeared shaken by the ordeal.

Send for a copy of 1959 Laura Wheeler Needlecraft Book. It has lovely designs to order: embroidery, crochet, knitting, weaving, quilting, toys. In the book, a special surprise to make a little girl happy—a cut-out doll, clothes to color. Send 25 cents for this book.

Mt. Savage Sets Dates For Clean-Up

MT. SAVAGE—The Mt. Savage Citizens Committee is sponsoring a Clean-Up Week. They are requesting residents of Mt. Savage to clean out their attics and cellars and get rid of all unnecessary accumulation they might have.

A truck has been hired which will collect on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, May 26, 27, and 28. The collection will start at Foundry Row and proceed to Railroad Street to Newton and Main Street, to Calla Hill, New Row, Columbia Avenue and Old Row.

This drive is headed by Colin Bowers who is asking that some of the citizens volunteer a few hours of their time to help load and unload the truck. Anyone with a few hours to volunteer should get in touch with Mr. Bowers at CO 4-3316.

EXPLANATION

We wish to inform the public about the article in the Evening Times published May 1st about Harolds Used Cars. The article claimed we failed to deliver titles to customers. This is to explain that Harold's had all the said titles in stock waiting for the puchasers to bring in the money to make necessary transfers.

The misdemeanor was that the transfer of title was not consumated in the 10-days required by the Department of Motor Vehicles. The instances complained of were situations in which the purchaser had not completed payments of the title fees to us within said 10-day period.

EXPLANATION

We wish to inform the public about the article in the Evening Times published May 1st about Harolds Used Cars. The article claimed we failed to deliver titles to customers. This is to explain that Harold's had all the said titles in stock waiting for the puchasers to bring in the money to make necessary transfers.

The misdemeanor was that the transfer of title was not consumated in the 10-days required by the Department of Motor Vehicles. The instances complained of were situations in which the purchaser had not completed payments of the title fees to us within said 10-day period.

Vandegrift Bids On Hospital Unit

ELKINS, W. Va. (AP)—C. H. Jimison & Sons Inc., of Huntington submitted the apparently low bid of $338,800 Thursday for construction of a new wing on Memorial General Hospital.

There were three other bidders. John I. Vandegrift of Cumberland, Md., was next to lowest with $344,469.

Acceptance of the Jimison bid is subject to approval by the State Health Department and the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. The reason is that $235,895 for the wing was provided under the Hill-Burton Act.

A laboratory and additional beds for chronic disease patients will be housed in the wing. Construction is expected to start within four to six weeks. Jimison specified completion in 250 days.

ROTC Assignments Are Announced

KEYSER — Capt. Jack Fessenden has announced summer assignments for military personnel at Potomac State College.

Master Sgt. Robert N. Good and Sgt. Francis Birnley will be stationed at Fort Knox, Ky., to assist in the training of advanced cadets and Sgt. Donald W. Brannaman will remain on the campus where he will be in charge of administrative affairs.

Capt. Fessenden is to report to Fort McClellan, Ala., where he will attend the Army Chemical Corps advanced course.

Red China May Compete In Olympics

Committee Moves For Readmission

MUNICH, Germany (UPI) —The International Olympic Committee moved a step closer Friday to readmission of Red China into the Olympics.

The IOC Executive Committee, convening here to prepare next week's plenary meeting, approved a proposal to strip the Nationalist Chinese Olympic Committee of its status as a body representing China.

IOC Chancellor Otto Mayer of Switzerland said Nationalist China will in the future be referred to in IOC records as "Taiwan."

This would make room for Red China, which quit the IOC in a huff earlier this year because the organization recognized both the Red and the Nationalist Chinese Olympic committees as bodies representing "China" — both being entitled to send "Chinese" teams to the games.

The proposal still has to be approved by the plenary IOC meeting before it becomes law. It is the executive committee's answer to a formal Soviet proposal that Nationalist China be expelled from the IOC and Red China be made the sole representative.

At a companion meeting, the international federations which control the 21 sports on the Olympic program unanimously expressed satisfaction with preparations for the 1960 games in Rome and Squaw Valley, Calif.

Barton OES Will Initiate

BARTON — Barton Chapter No. 37, Order of Eastern Star, will meet Monday at 8 p. m. in the IOOF hall.

The degrees of the Order will be conferred by Mrs. Evelyn Michael, worthy matron and Austin Michael, worth patron. Mrs. Virginia Hoffa, newly appointed deputy grand lecturer, will make her first official visit.

A memorial service for deceased members of the Chapter will be given by the officials of the Chapter. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Juanita Beachy, Mrs. Jean George and Mrs. Catherine Gattens.

Will Build Home

Norbert A. Sell, 600 Lynn Street, secured a permit from the City of Cumberland yesterday to build a one-story brick dwelling at the intersection of Frederick Street and Welsh Avenue. It will be 35 by 57 feet and will cost $18,000.

The Davy safety lamp — a miner's lamp constructed to avoid explosion of gas — was invented by Sir Humphrey Davy.

Vandegrift Bids On Hospital Unit

ELKINS, W. Va. (AP)—C. H. Jimison & Sons Inc., of Huntington submitted the apparently low bid of $338,800 Thursday for construction of a new wing on Memorial General Hospital.

There were three other bidders. John I. Vandegrift of Cumberland, Md., was next to lowest with $344,469.

Acceptance of the Jimison bid is subject to approval by the State Health Department and the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. The reason is that $235,895 for the wing was provided under the Hill-Burton Act.

A laboratory and additional beds for chronic disease patients will be housed in the wing. Construction is expected to start within four to six weeks. Jimison specified completion in 250 days.

ROTC Assignments Are Announced

Capt. Fessenden is to report to Fort McClellan, Ala., where he will attend the Army Chemical Corps advanced course.

Red China May Compete In Olympics

Committee Moves For Readmission

MUNICH, Germany (UPI) —The International Olympic Committee moved a step closer Friday to readmission of Red China into the Olympics.

The IOC Executive Committee, convening here to prepare next week's plenary meeting, approved a proposal to strip the Nationalist Chinese Olympic Committee of its status as a body representing China.

IOC Chancellor Otto Mayer of Switzerland said Nationalist China will in the future be referred to in IOC records as "Taiwan."

This would make room for Red China, which quit the IOC in a huff earlier this year because the organization recognized both the Red and the Nationalist Chinese Olympic committees as bodies representing "China" — both being entitled to send "Chinese" teams to the games.

The proposal still has to be approved by the plenary IOC meeting before it becomes law. It is the executive committee's answer to a formal Soviet proposal that Nationalist China be expelled from the IOC and Red China be made the sole representative.

At a companion meeting, the international federations which control the 21 sports on the Olympic program unanimously expressed satisfaction with preparations for the 1960 games in Rome and Squaw Valley, Calif.

Barton OES Will Initiate

BARTON — Barton Chapter No. 37, Order of Eastern Star, will meet Monday at 8 p. m. in the IOOF hall.

The degrees of the Order will be conferred by Mrs. Evelyn Michael, worthy matron and Austin Michael, worth patron. Mrs. Virginia Hoffa, newly appointed deputy grand lecturer, will make her first official visit.

A memorial service for deceased members of the Chapter will be given by the officials of the Chapter. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Juanita Beachy, Mrs. Jean George and Mrs. Catherine Gattens.

Will Build Home

Norbert A. Sell, 600 Lynn Street, secured a permit from the City of Cumberland yesterday to build a one-story brick dwelling at the intersection of Frederick Street and Welsh Avenue. It will be 35 by 57 feet and will cost $18,000.

The Davy safety lamp — a miner's lamp constructed to avoid explosion of gas — was invented by Sir Humphrey Davy.

Stocks End Week Upside Despite Profit-Taking

NEW YORK (UPI)—Stocks finished the week on the upside despite some late profit-taking which pared gains in the rails, chemicals and electronics group, the day's upside leaders.

Price movement generally was narrow and activity lightened to a total of 3,030,000 shares from 3,230,000 Thursday.

Rails had some good individual gains and their average was at a new high since early August, 1956. However, weakening just before the close, Southern Pacific fell nearly 2 points, Norfolk & Western and Southern Railway around a point each. There were gains of close to 3 points in Monon Railroad A and B shares; nearly 2 in Denver & Rio Grande Western, close to 3 in Kansas City Southern.

Ford Motor was a feature among industrials, rising nearly 2 points, while on the American Stock Exchange Ford of Canada shares soared more than 33 points each following Ford's offer to purchase the shares at $188 each in American currency, about 30 per cent above the Thursday close on the American exchange.

Improvement of 2¼ points in DuPont, around a point in Allied Chemical and Union Carbide helped the industrial average, along with gains of 1¼ in American Telephone, a point in American Tobacco, ⅞ in U.S. Steel, 1⅛ Texaco and 1½ Westinghouse Electric.

Elsewhere in the chemicals, Thiokol fell 2⅜ to 59½ on the day's second most active trading. It was topped only by Boeing which opened on a series of blocks including 11,000 and 9,000 shares. It rose ½ to 37½.

Bristol-Myers gained over 3 in the drugs, American Home Products 4 points, Warner Lambert more than a point. There were gains of 1½ points or more in Colgate Palmolive, Harris-Intertype, Goodrich, Liggett & Myers and Owens - Corning Fiberglas. General Mills soared 8 points.

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI)—Most grains were lower today on the Chicago Board of Trade.

At the close, wheat was off ⅞ to 1; corn off ¼ to up ⅛; oats off ⅜ to 1½; new oats off ⅜ to 1¾; rye off 1 to up ½; soybeans off ⅜ to up ⅛.

Wheat was weaker on liquidation carried over from yesterday. There was early commission house selling and some hedge selling. Winter wheat in northern Texas and southern Oklahoma was reported ready for harvest. The weather outlook, however, was not favorable.

The corn market was quiet and easier after early liquidation. Large amounts of July were sold and July wheat purchased by way of closing spreads. There was scattered liquidation by longs. All subsidy bids were rejected.

Oats were steady in the nearby and easier in deferred contracts. Stop-loss orders uncovered in July weakened the market earlier. Spreaders bought July.

Soybeans were mixed after early firm tones. Commercial houses were on both sides of July. Commission houses bought November, and local traders sold. There was also some eastern selling of September.

Rye improved after early losses of over a cent. Lards and oils were higher, and meals were easier.

The export market was fairly quiet. West Germany was said to have bought soybeans for November shipment, and Japan for June-July shipment. About 80,000 bushels of rye were reported moving to Rotterdam via the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Outside markets were mixed. The range:

Stocks End Week Upside Despite Profit-Taking

NEW YORK (UPI)—Stocks finished the week on the upside despite some late profit-taking which pared gains in the rails, chemicals and electronics group, the day's upside leaders.

Price movement generally was narrow and activity lightened to a total of 3,030,000 shares from 3,230,000 Thursday.

Rails had some good individual gains and their average was at a new high since early August, 1956. However, weakening just before the close, Southern Pacific fell nearly 2 points, Norfolk & Western and Southern Railway around a point each. There were gains of close to 3 points in Monon Railroad A and B shares; nearly 2 in Denver & Rio Grande Western, close to 3 in Kansas City Southern.

Ford Motor was a feature among industrials, rising nearly 2 points, while on the American Stock Exchange Ford of Canada shares soared more than 33 points each following Ford's offer to purchase the shares at $188 each in American currency, about 30 per cent above the Thursday close on the American exchange.

Improvement of 2¼ points in DuPont, around a point in Allied Chemical and Union Carbide helped the industrial average, along with gains of 1¼ in American Telephone, a point in American Tobacco, ⅞ in U.S. Steel, 1⅛ Texaco and 1½ Westinghouse Electric.

Elsewhere in the chemicals, Thiokol fell 2⅜ to 59½ on the day's second most active trading. It was topped only by Boeing which opened on a series of blocks including 11,000 and 9,000 shares. It rose ½ to 37½.

Bristol-Myers gained over 3 in the drugs, American Home Products 4 points, Warner Lambert more than a point. There were gains of 1½ points or more in Colgate Palmolive, Harris-Intertype, Goodrich, Liggett & Myers and Owens - Corning Fiberglas. General Mills soared 8 points.

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI)—Most grains were lower today on the Chicago Board of Trade.

At the close, wheat was off ⅛ to 1; corn off ¼ to up ⅛; oats off ⅜ to 1½; new oats off ⅜ to 1¾; rye off 1 to up ½; soybeans off ⅝ to up ⅛.

Wheat was weaker on liquidation carried over from yesterday. There was early commission house selling and some hedge selling. Winter wheat in northern Texas and southern Oklahoma was reported ready for harvest. The weather outlook, however, was not favorable.

The corn market was quiet and easier after early liquidation. Large amounts of July were sold and July wheat purchased by way of closing spreads. There was scattered liquidation by longs. All subsidy bids were rejected.

Oats were steady in the nearby and easier in deferred contracts. Stop-loss orders uncovered in July weakened the market earlier. Spreaders bought July.

Soybeans were mixed after early firm tones. Commercial houses were on both sides of July. Commission houses bought November, and local traders sold. There was also some eastern selling of September.

Rye improved after early losses of over a cent. Lards and oils were higher, and meals were easier.

The export market was fairly quiet. West Germany was said to have bought soybeans for November shipment, and Japan for June-July shipment. About 80,000 bushels of rye were reported moving to Rotterdam via the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Outside markets were mixed. The range:

Fairgo Youths Get Suspended Jail Sentences

Three Found Guilty On Larceny Charges

Three Fairgo youths were given suspended jail terms yesterday morning in Trial Magistrate Court after they were found guilty of petit larceny charges.

Magistrate F. Allan Weatherholt sentenced Edward D. Miller, 18; Dewey Campbell, 20, and John Leslie, 21, to 60 days in the County Jail, but suspended the sentences on certain conditions.

City Police arrested the three youths from Fairgo Thursday morning on charges of ransacking an automobile belonging to Robert Cowden while it was parked near the Moose Home Wednesday night.

Magistrate Weatherholt suspended Leslie's jail term on condition he return to his job in Washington, D.C., with a painting firm. The other two youths were given suspended terms on condition they return to high school in the fall and complete their studies for graduation.

The youths also were picked up in connection with the theft of about 40 pounds of brass from the B&O Railroad yards and the theft of parts from cars parked on a used car lot on Dingle Hill.

County Investigator Edwin R. Lilya presented the case in court yesterday morning and the arrest and investigation were made by Det. James E. Van, Sgt. E. Gordon Hite and Officers Oliver Cook and Donald Boggs.

Trimming Of Trees Advocated

William H. Johnson, district forester, has written a letter to John J. Rowan, president of the Allegany County Board of Commissioners, in regards to 18 maple and elm trees on county property at Sylvan Retreat and the County Home.

He advised Mr. Rowan on the trimming and care of the trees. Mr. Johnson emphasized the need for periodic trimming of the shade trees to keep them safe as well as maintaining their good appearance.

The lack of periodic trimming frequently allows the trees to grow too large and extends their size beyond the capacity of the site to support the tree in good condition.

Mr. Johnson pointed out that frequently deterioration develops due to this lack of care. He recommended that the practice of white washing the trunks of the trees be discontinued.

There are breathing pores in the bark of the trunks and lime has a tendency to block the pores. Also there is a possibility of lime burning the cambrium layer which lies just under the bark. This could kill a tree, he concluded.

Steeple Work Is Completed At St. Paul's

Workmen of the George F. Hazelwood Company this week dismantled the web of scaffolding which was erected in front of St. Paul's Lutheran Church on Washington Street in order that the steeple might be covered with 16-gauge white steeple porcelain.

A huge cross was secured in place on Tuesday atop the steeple which rises about 118 feet from the floor of the church built on the old Roman property.

The interior of the new church is being completed and landscaping work as well as the construction of a new sidewalk and wall are now under way.

These Chicks Hatched In Classroom

Legislature Adopts New Regulation

New and improved property in Allegany County which is substantially completed will be assessed twice a year instead of once a year, Somerville Nicholson, supervisor of assessments, said yesterday.

(b) In addition to the annual date of finality for ordinary county taxes provided for by local law as established by subsection (b) of this section, each county shall have a semi-annual date of finality for real property becoming assessable after the last date of finality.

Real property taxes due and payable following and based upon and said semi-annual assessment shall be computed in a pro rate amount for that portion of the taxable year which remains until the next succeeding annual date of finality after which time the property shall be assessed and taxes on a full year's basis. No annual date of finality shall be changed by this subsection.

JUDGE DULANEY FOSTER

Hardy County Favors Levy For Schools

MOOREFIELD, W. Va. — Hardy County voters gave overwhelming support yesterday to the school levy to provide local matching funds for public school purposes.

Late last night, with 14 of 16 precincts reported, Hardy countians voted 1,358 in favor of the levy with 397 voting against. The other two outlying precincts could not possibly defeat the levy, officials said.

The levy which amounts to about 15 cents on class 1 property, 30 cents on class 2 and 60 cents on classes 3 and 4, will provide the county with $58,000 to be used for state fund matching purposes for public schools.

In 1957, the last time the levy was on referendum, Hardy County voters defeated the proposal. The levy mandated yesterday is for a three-year period.

Gist Recreated As Character On Television

Christopher Gist, one of the earliest settlers in what is now Cumberland, will be recreated as a television personality in an historic drama which will be carried at 4:30 this afternoon on a Pittsburgh television station in conjunction with the Pittsburgh Bicentennial.

Gist was hired by the Ohio Company in 1749 as its agent in this area, where an effort was made to develop fur trade with the Indians. In that year, Gist, who was a native of Baltimore, came to Wills Creek to map out plans to fulfill his work for the Ohio Company.

In 1753, Gist accompanied George Washington on his mission to warn the French from the Ohio and guided him through the mountains on that memorable trip. Gist and his two sons were with General Edward Braddock in his fatal campaign of 1755 which headed west from Fort Cumberland. Gist was the great grandfather of Montgomery Blair, Postmaster General in Lincoln's cabinet.

Gov. Completes Reorganization Of Roads Unit

Fishing Resources Body Is Appointed

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Gov. Tawes Friday completed reorganization of the State Roads Commission and named a new five - member Tidewater Fisheries Commission to take office June 1.

To serve under Chairman John B. Funk on the revamped Roads Commission Tawes chose:

John J. McMullen, Cumberland publisher and present interim chairman of the SRC, to represent Western Maryland.

Lansdale G. Claggett, 47-year-old Upper Marlboro insurance man and farm supply dealer, to represent Prince Georges and Montgomery Counties.

Paul J. Bailey, Leonardtown attorney and former Republican state senator from St. Mary's County, to represent Southern Maryland.

Terms Staggered

Thomas N. Kay, longtime county commissioner from Cecil County, to represent the Eastern Shore.

McMullen, Kay and Claggett were named to two-year terms and Bailey, Brinsfield and Owens to one year each so that terms can be staggered in accordance with the new state law.

Funk, former Baltimore County public works director, will be director of highways and chairman of the SRC serving at the pleasure of the governor. He will be directly in charge of primary and federal interstate highways and will work with the commission on secondary road planning and construction.

The governor's appointments to the Tidewater Fisheries Commission also places a brand-new agency in charge of the state's vast Chesapeake Bay fishing resources.

Byrd Is Member

Named as commission members were Dr. H. C. Byrd, retired president of the University of Maryland; Jeremiah Valliant, mayor of Salisbury; Dr. George J. Weems, Calvert County physician; Albert I. Baker, former member of the House of Delegates from Queen Annes County; and John F. McNulty, Anne Arundel County delegate in the Legislature.

The group will choose its own chairman and select a full-time administrative director for the Tidewater Fisheries Department after taking office June 1. At present the two jobs are held by John P. Tawes of Crisfield, a Republican appointee of Gov. McKeldin who will go out of office with the reorganization.

Dr. Byrd, now 70, had been widely rumored as Tawes' choice for a department director but the position would make him a state employe and require retirement at 70. No such bar is placed on commission members.

Will Take Trip

Tawes pointed out that all five men have an interest and background of some type in fisheries work.

The terms were staggered from one through five years to prevent a wholesale turnover of the commission. Valliant, whose studies helped spur the reorganization, drew a five-year term. Byrd was named for four, Weems three, McNulty two and Baker one.

McNulty was believed to be a replacement on the commission for Sen. Louis N. Phipps (D-Anne Arundel),, who had been named by the governor to membership on the outgoing TFC but declined the appointment to stay in the Legislature.

Tawes completed the appointments before taking off on a two-week trip to Europe, where he will attend graduation exercises of the University of Maryland's Overseas Division at Heidelberg, Germany, May 30.

He also announced before his depature that Joseph N. Meyerhoff, chairman of the State Planning Commission, will continue in that post under a reorganized State Planning Commission which takes effect June 1.

Fairgo Youths Get Suspended Jail Sentences

Three Found Guilty On Larceny Charges

Three Fairgo youths were given suspended jail terms yesterday morning in Trial Magistrate Court after they were found guilty of petit larceny charges.

Magistrate F. Allan Weatherholt sentenced Edward D. Miller, 18; Dewey Campbell, 20, and John Leslie, 21, to 60 days in the County Jail, but suspended the sentences on certain conditions.

City Police arrested the three youths from Fairgo Thursday morning on charges of ransacking an automobile belonging to Robert Cowden while it was parked near the Moose Home Wednesday night.

Magistrate Weatherholt suspended Leslie's jail term on condition he return to his job in Washington, D.C., with a painting firm. The other two youths were given suspended terms on condition they return to high school in the fall and complete their studies for graduation.

The youths also were picked up in connection with the theft of about 40 pounds of brass from the B&O Railroad yards and the theft of parts from cars parked on a used car lot on Dingle Hill.

County Investigator Edwin R. Lilya presented the case in court yesterday morning and the arrest and investigation were made by Det. James E. Van, Sgt. E. Gordon Hite and Officers Oliver Cook and Donald Boggs.

Trimming Of Trees Advocated

William H. Johnson, district forester, has written a letter to John J. Rowan, president of the Allegany County Board of Commissioners, in regards to 18 maple and elm trees on county property at Sylvan Retreat and the County Home.

He advised Mr. Rowan on the trimming and care of the trees. Mr. Johnson emphasized the need for periodic trimming of the shade trees to keep them safe as well as maintaining their good appearance.

The lack of periodic trimming frequently allows the trees to grow too large and extends their size beyond the capacity of the site to support the tree in good condition.

Mr. Johnson pointed out that frequently deterioration develops due to this lack of care. He recommended that the practice of white washing the trunks of the trees be discontinued.

There are breathing pores in the bark of the trunks and lime has a tendency to block the pores. Also there is a possibility of lime burning the cambrium layer which lies just under the bark. This could kill a tree, he concluded.

Steeple Work Is Completed At St. Paul's

Workmen of the George F. Hazelwood Company this week dismantled the web of scaffolding which was erected in front of St. Paul's Lutheran Church on Washington Street in order that the steeple might be covered with 16-gauge white steeple porcelain.

A huge cross was secured in place on Tuesday atop the steeple which rises about 118 feet from the floor of the church built on the old Roman property.

Last November, a 110-foot boom on a power crane was used to hoist the four-ton prefabricated iron steeple 70 feet onto the church.

The interior of the new church is being completed and landscaping work as well as the construction of a new sidewalk and wall are now under way.

Hardy County Favors Levy For Schools

MOOREFIELD, W. Va. — Hardy County voters gave overwhelming support yesterday to the school levy to provide local matching funds for public school purposes.

Late last night, with 14 of 16 precincts reported, Hardy countians voted 1,358 in favor of the levy with 397 voting against. The other two outlying precincts could not possibly defeat the levy, officials said.

The levy which amounts to about 15 cents on class 1 property, 30 cents on class 2 and 60 cents on classes 3 and 4, will provide the county with $58,000 to be used for state fund matching purposes for public schools.

In 1957, the last time the levy was on referendum, Hardy County voters defeated the proposal. The levy mandated yesterday is for a three-year period.

James B. Arnold, assistant farm agent of Allegany County is reminding 4-H Club members that certain steps must be taken if they plan to exhibit animals at the annual Cumberland Fair which will be held August 17-22 at Fairgo.

He said that two copies of health papers are to be filed with the Livestock Sanitary Service at least 14 days before showing animals at the fair.

Form are to be in the mail by August 1, he added. An explanation of the health requirements is on the back of the application form sent to the 4-H members.

Any questions are to be referred to the local veterinarian or to Mr. Arnold, who said that a proposal has been made by the Purebred Dairy Cattle Club that all 4-H animals shown at fairs be registered in the name of the individual effective July 1, 1960.

This means that animals registered as father-son partnership will not be eligible to be shown in 4-H Club classes.

Also, any animal being shown this year that is not registered in partnership arrangements must be identified by registration number or eartag number and place on file in the county Extension office or in the State 4-H Club office no later than June 1, 1959.

Gist Recreated As Character On Television

Christopher Gist, one of the earliest settlers in what is now Cumberland, will be recreated as a television personality in an historic drama which will be carried at 4:30 this afternoon on a Pittsburgh television station in conjunction with the Pittsburgh Bicentennial.

Gist was hired by the Ohio Company in 1749 as its agent in this area, where an effort was made to develop fur trade with the Indians. In that year, Gist, who was a native of Baltimore, came to Wills Creek to map out plans to fulfill his work for the Ohio Company.

In 1753, Gist accompanied George Washington on his mission to warn the French from the Ohio and guided him through the mountains on that memorable trip. Gist and his two sons were with General Edward Braddock in his fatal campaign of 1755 which headed west from Fort Cumberland. Gist was the great grandfather of Montgomery Blair, Postmaster General in Lincoln's cabinet.

Gov. Completes Reorganization Of Roads Unit

Fishing Resources Body Is Appointed

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Gov. Tawes Friday completed reorganization of the State Roads Commission and named a new five - member Tidewater Fisheries Commission to take office June 1.

To serve under Chairman John B. Funk on the revamped Roads Commission Tawes chose:

John J. McMullen, Cumberland publisher and present interim chairman of the SRC, to represent Western Maryland.

Lansdale G. Claggett, 47-year-old Upper Marlboro insurance man and farm supply dealer, to represent Prince Georges and Montgomery Counties.

Paul J. Bailey, Leonardtown attorney and former Republican state senator from St. Mary's County, to represent Southern Maryland.

Terms Staggered

Thomas N. Kay, longtime county commissioner from Cecil County, to represent the Eastern Shore.

McMullen, Kay and Claggett were named to two-year terms and Bailey, Brinsfield and Owens to one year each so that terms can be staggered in accordance with the new state law.

Funk, former Baltimore County public works director, will be director of highways and chairman of the SRC serving at the pleasure of the governor. He will be directly in charge of primary and federal interstate highways and will work with the commission on secondary road planning and construction.

The governor's appointments to the Tidewater Fisheries Commission also places a brand-new agency in charge of the state's vast Chesapeake Bay fishing resources.

Byrd Is Member

Named as commission members were Dr. H. C. Byrd, retired president of the University of Maryland; Jeremiah Valliant, mayor of Salisbury; Dr. George J. Weems, Calvert County physician; Albert I. Baker, former member of the House of Delegates from Queen Annes County; and John F. McNulty, Anne Arundel County delegate in the Legislature.

The group will choose its own chairman and select a full-time administrative director for the Tidewater Fisheries Department after taking office June 1. At present the two jobs are held by John P. Tawes of Crisfield, a Republican appointee of Gov. McKeldin who will go out of office with the reorganization.

Dr. Byrd, now 70, had been widely rumored as Tawes' choice for a department director but the position would make him a state employe and require retirement at 70. No such bar is placed on commission members.

Will Take Trip

Tawes pointed out that all five men have an interest and background of some type in fisheries work.

The terms were staggered from one through five years to prevent a wholesale turnover of the commission. Valliant, whose studies helped spur the reorganization, drew a five-year term. Byrd was named for four, Weems three, McNulty two and Baker one.

McNulty was believed to be a replacement on the commission for Sen. Louis N. Phipps (D-Anne Arundel),, who had been named by the governor to membership on the outgoing TFC but declined the appointment to stay in the Legislature.

Tawes completed the appointments before taking off on a two-week trip to Europe, where he will attend graduation exercises of the University of Maryland's Overseas Division at Heidelberg, Germany, May 30.

He also announced before his depature that Joseph N. Meyerhoff, chairman of the State Planning Commission, will continue in that post under a reorganized State Planning Commission which takes effect June 1.
